Thread: Do you smoke tobacco?

Aklimczak522 - June 2, 2020, 3:08 am

As stated in thread name

If yes, why?

QU35T - June 2, 2020, 3:11 am

I do smoke cigarrets, blue chesterfield to be exact. Why? Because I'm addicted lol. Also I love the feel of smoking a cigarrete in the morning chilling and then I can start my day properly + late night cigs are so relaxing + when drinking beer, the taste is soooooooo good. Do you smoke? What brand?

MarvinMalware - June 2, 2020, 3:25 am

I used to smoke Marlboro's only for about 2 years, then switched to vaping and I've been stuck on that for about 4 years now due to the insanely high nicotine content. It's awful, definitely takes a toll on my health.

scam. - June 2, 2020, 3:37 am

Yes I smoke like a chimney. Even indoors. Like others have said it's mostly due to addiction. Picture the feeling of being extremely thirsty. And then imagine drinking a nice glass of water. That's what it's like. At this stage, I could not picture me being able to quit.

I started when I was young and it's just what you did. Parties alcohol drugs and cigarettes. I know more people that smoke than don't smoke.

I think I do genuinely like it. It's comforting to me.

I haven't touched drugs or alcohol in over 2 years at this point and yet I still don't really have a desire to quit smoking. I like stepping out for a smoke and having that moment. It's like a little moment of peace.

Got to have at least one vice I suppose.

In?sane? - June 2, 2020, 3:39 am

I "quit" the new year 2020 and managed to go some months, now I take one every here and there then go weeks without it.

scam. - June 2, 2020, 3:41 am

Also another thing to note as someone who started smoking before vapes were a thing it is really bizarre to me to see kids getting addicted to vapes. I understand that nicotine is addictive but I never got the appeal of vaping over smoking. Vaping doesn't even compare to smoking in terms of satisfaction to me.

Vaping to me has always been a thing to ween yourself off smokes but it seems like most kids these day end up getting into cigarettes due to vaping.

I used to live next to a school and every morning going to work I'd see so many kids vaping and just laugh thinking how x years ago that was me but with cigarettes.

Like how many people out there that haven't smoked and say smoking is disgusting and yet are addicted to a vape. Fucking retarded.

Xtreme™ - June 2, 2020, 3:43 am

I started smoking being a stupid high-school kid.

Started due to curiosity I guess. Continued due to the stress, and afterward due to nicotine.

I used to smoke a pack or maybe more even never could keep a count.

Avoid it if you don't smoke. It does not relieve stress, that's the nicotine talking.

I am working towards quitting, it seems hard but it ain't impossible :)

Simplex - June 2, 2020, 3:46 am

Nope and I find it one of the most disgusting things you can do.

I will quit it before 2021 that is if we manage to make it there, With the current scenarios happening around the world It seems hard ??

Just gotta try it was difficult for me and i put on weight and instead of having a cig i would go have a sweet or biscuit ..

It was always after i had my lunch or dinner i always craved a cigarette and even when i was drinking it was so difficult but i'm so happy i done it ..

I can still stand beside someone who smokes but as an ex smoker i think the smell now stinks and to think i smelled like that when i smoked

I vape, I only ever smoked tobacco when I was out with friends drinking.

Even though I vaped for about 4-5 years I've recently slowed down and now I hardly ever use it.

Mainly because I can't just walk into a vape shop anymore lol so since COVID I've sort of stopped. I hate ordering vape liquid and I hate having the same thing all the time so I thought... ima just stop.

The price is worth it. 2 weeks feeling like shit is nothing compared to not be able to run for 15 mins straight.

The difference when you quit is huge, i used not to be able to play Tennis more than 10-15 min.(i was seeing stars and was blue after lol) I quitted 7 month ago and im now able to play for 2 hours straight without any problem and i didn't even excercise since i quitted... Simply stopped smoking 25 cig a day for the past 10 years. Best decision i made so far.

ADP1 - June 5, 2020, 2:23 am

I've smoked like a retard since I was 12. Lol but obv not properly. I remember I didn't even use to take back the smoke properly. I just thought I was cool. Use to steal smokes and hide them. Times change man.

I'm about to be rich and I will only smoke blunts when I want to. If I could go back in time and not smoke... my life would probably be so much better. Same with weed really.

SpookyD - June 5, 2020, 2:31 am

Vaping to me has always been a thing to ween yourself off smokes but it seems like most kids these day end up getting into cigarettes due to vaping.

I used to live next to a school and every morning going to work I'd see so many kids vaping and just laugh thinking how x years ago that was me but with cigarettes.

Like how many people out there that haven't smoked and say smoking is disgusting and yet are addicted to a vape. fugging retarded.

That's true, I smoke now for like 4 years and I tried vaping but you can't compare it to smoking. I tried it to quit smoking but I've quit vaping to smoke again.

I don't smoke cigarettes but like once a day I'll take a puff on my girlfriend's Juul and get a light-headed buzz lol

I stopped smoking weed 4 months ago so it feels good to smoke something once in a while.

No, even if I want I can't because I have asthma

DeITex - July 13, 2020, 1:52 pm

No. I'm sure it's a good thing for some people, maybe in some kind of way. I just personally try to stay away from, or avoid making habits of, anything that might inhibit my ability to function to the best of my ability.

I only smoke it via hookah / shisha but I don't like the pure tobacco taste alone.

shadowyounglink - July 13, 2020, 5:35 pm

no, because it's gross. it also turns your teeth yellow. it also turns your lungs black. oh, and did i mention it makes you light headed? gross.

i just recently quit smoking marijuana, on my 30th birthday, which was yesterday.
just gonna stop doing drugs altogether.
no more beer either.

i wanna live past 50... with no medical conditions. (unless they come with age, like arthritis or something)

popZmoke - July 13, 2020, 5:35 pm

Nope but I do smoke hookah/shisha

Apocryphon - July 14, 2020, 3:26 am

I don't.

-Why?

Because it's unhealthy?

?roye - July 14, 2020, 3:28 am

I have done it a few times (maybe twice or thrice) but I'm not an addict and I don't find pleasure smoking it.

Blockonome - July 14, 2020, 4:30 am

I use tobacco in my spliff, as I can get high cheaper and not "waste" weed, however, if I had the money, I would smoke pure green.

Yanix - July 14, 2020, 4:37 am

I have tried smoking before when I was on high school but I can't take it haha until now I haven't tried it anymore :D

I've been smoking for over twenty years. I hung out with a shitty crowd in high school and made bad choices.

rsx - July 14, 2020, 10:51 am

Used to smoke a pack a day for 4ish years. Switched to vaping and have gone back a few times, but not recently. Hoping to eventually become nicotine free.

Joy - July 14, 2020, 7:41 pm

NO. It's shit. I don't even know why people like it other than the cool factor (As i know a lot of my friends who smoke in college just to look cool smh)

Canada Goose - July 14, 2020, 7:44 pm

I'm at almost a pack a day habit, getting bad. Need to quit...
