Thread: Picked me up a new EDC \(Glock\)

HERMES - June 2, 2020, 11:37 am

Finally got my first Glock.

After having several Taurus, S&W, M&P, and a few others.. I finally got me a hold of a Glock.

I absolutely love it!

What's your guys EDC? ?

Bacardi Cola Lime - June 2, 2020, 11:39 am

Closest thing I've had to this is the vanilla CSGO Glock skin. Must be a joy to shoot with.

Well I can tell you, the Glocks in CSGO are nerfed a lot more than the IRL ones hahahah.

Glocks piss me off so bad in CSGO.. Like who the hell can take 17 shots to the chest and still be alive with a real pistol smhhhh.

shakur123 - June 2, 2020, 11:40 am wow looks good, why do you choose this particular caliber?

Eh. Personal comfort.

I feel more safe carrying at LEAST a 9mm rather than lets say a 22 or 22LR or hell, even a 380..

If it's not as big as a 9mm or bigger, I don't feel safe.

I also carry ballistic tip hollows too.

It certainly feels like a gun that you can spam fast but I'm sure it's not.

That's definitely real, and 100% badass.

If you like customized guns, look up Black Rambo. He's badass!

BTW Do you plan to do any customize work on yours or just leave it like that?

Yeah! Those are dope, check out the wallet pistols!

They fold into the size of something you can fit inside your wallet. Literally, carries I think 2-3 22LR bullets as well.

And nah man, I like to keep my guns stock.

Well thats a lie. I'll always order extendos, and lasers, but that's about it.

B?????araka - June 2, 2020, 12:09 pm

I don't understand Americans and their guns rights.

I mean I do, but I don't.

Awesome You're going to like your Glock they're super easy to use I never used anything but military weapons but I have shotglocks and I have taken them apart and put them back together and they are one of the simplest personal defense weapons to own do you have your concealed carry permit?

Not yet I'm only 20. But I'd rather get judged by 12 than carried by 6. I'm in ATL, ive been held at gun point in broad day light in front of cops out here. People don't care, you gotta stay safe.

Wespa - June 3, 2020, 10:13 am

I wish that the finnish military had glocks for every man. Looks really nice.

How much does one of those cost?

Toosii - June 3, 2020, 10:23 am

???????????? - June 3, 2020, 10:58 am
