Hi everyone,

I enjoy dark web so much. You can get a lot of stuff for cheap prices and its just fun to read a little bit more extreme forums.

After messing around a lot i found the best web searching engine (in my opinion)

If you are interested and want to see whats going on there, comment on the post. Dont PM me.

I just hope you don't want to get into the dark web thing because of child photography (don't be like that)

Decent Search Engines, they arn't exactly a private resource. Investigators can use them for scanning the dark web.
