What's the biggest payment you've taken at once? How did it feel and how did you go about spending it?

Felt good, all of it got chargebacked tho.

Neon™ - June 7, 2020, 3:21 pm

8K USD, dirty money. I don't regret it, but I'd never do it again. Was young and dumb and luck was on my side.

Would you mind sharing what happened or is it that dirty?

I got involved with the wrong people and backing off the situation was not an option so I went all in. Basically I did something for them, everything went smooth and I got my payment. The whole thing was transporting something from place A to place B. Can't really share what it was, but it was not drugs.

Well since I sold my old house, i had a Nice 280k € payment appear on my bank account, wich was Nice while it lasted because 3 weeks after I bought a Nice piece of land for 120k and used 100k as an upfront payment to have my house built on that piece of land.

ETH - June 7, 2020, 9:42 pm

My salary of 3 months it is the biggest payment i ever received

Bacardi Cola Lime - June 8, 2020, 2:37 am

The biggest payment in once go is probably my monthly salary. Never made that much in one go online but I do get smaller ones.

did you have to pay that out gradually or all at once. Just wondered on whether it would get flagged for taxes e.t.c

HOMODIN - June 8, 2020, 2:43 am just shy of 890k€, all came in as one transaction, felt unreal, felt weird, felt like it wasn't my account, felt like a dream...sold our flat and used the money to pay off debts n loans.
