Hello folks !

So i decide to go back again after very long rest, i am aware that this place has change lot, but i want to know what most notable change that happen with this forums (beside the rule and official news page), I hope everyone is health and stay safe in this current Economic uncertainty and global pandemic.

The hackuman game is pretty cool and exciting

There's a new game to mess with, the Hackuman game. You can check it out here

<https://hackforums.net/hackuman.php>

There are some new awards of course and an improved warning system. Many other new features as well but those are the first that come in mind.

Welcome back!

I don't know if it was here last year, but I'm really enjoying playing Hack Game.

doomkit - June 8, 2020, 2:35 am ok i will check it, thanks for sugestion.

As others have said, not a massive change. But a few cool features and Hackuman are the main ones. Couple new awards i.e coronavirus. I'd recommend checking out the HF News articles for a good source of updates.
