ATC Shop - June 9, 2020, 10:00 pm

Hello everybody,

I'm not a graphic expert so this post will have a very simple presentation.

I can get you the game you want on the platform you want (console or PC) for less than you can find on the internet.

Just ask me which game you are interested here or in PM and I will answer how much I can get it for you.

Then, if you are still interested, we can make a contract on the site and I will provide your game in a few hours.

I don't provide a vouch.

You have 3 posts and brand new and don't provide a vouch? Good luck with sales ?

It takes me a while to provide this service on demand, so I don't want to do this for free.

And I don't have a reputation -112 ?

So how long is "a while" since its not on demand? A couple hours, a day, a week? And are we supposed to be paying you first before we receive our game? If you're going to be selling this, you'll most likely have a decent influx of customers per day, so how will you take care of each and every one of them since your service takes "a while"

Also, the -rep was a bytes for rep giveaway to prove that popularity or reputation doesn't make a fuck on this forum, which I aim to prove to people like you because you're clearly misinformed if you think popularity on HF is important. Theres a reason I have a positive b-rating and negative rep :)
