Thread: Anyone living in Thailand on HF?

Ravioli - June 11, 2020, 2:42 am

Hey boys, just curious if anyone is currently living in Thailand on the forum. If you are, where did you move from and how has your experience been in Thailand so far? It's really beautiful there and I'm 100% travelling there when covid is over.

I made many friends including lady boys cheeks.

Smexy - June 11, 2020, 3:01 am

No but, a friend of mine his brother is there right now, because he found a gf in thailand.

Thailand is very wonderful place for some beaches and like our country the weather is almost similar to what we have.

I live in Asia and we also have some great tourist destinations as well :)

If you like cocaine and ladyboys you should have a great time there. Also relatively cheap life. Never been there though..

Never been there though..I'll definitely be sober except for alcohol. I see they have no tolerance for any drugs so I'll pass on that.

The cheap life there is very attractive to me. Since I work from home already who knows if I like it I might just settle down there.

Make them use a contract and open a Dispute if they have a pussy instead of a big pepe

Hmmm real question is why do you have -2 billion bytes did the lady boy steal your bytes.

Br?dley - June 11, 2020, 3:57 am

Most blokes go there to penetrate as many women as they can in one hit. Can't say I have been there OP, but definitely a great holiday destination from what I have heard.

Although if Thailand isn't what you are looking for, best you come down to the land down under. Beautiful women, beaches and good foods, tourist pay a fortune to see what I see in my country, it's a must do.

I'm already used to really hot weather so that aspect doesn't bother me. It looks really beautiful there and if I lived there I'd live like a king because of how cheap it is for most things. 5-6 months rent where I live = 1 month rent there for the same thing... that's mad.

I have a friend who accumulated like 200k$ from work and savings and flew to thailand to live there. He works from home now as a freelancer and does it and he really enjoys it! also its cheap as fuck to live there if you come from any other country basically. Also he says the pussy there is magnificent. lmao
