Thread: Woke up for work an hour early, on accident.

Honestly, just making this post because I want to see what you guys are doing. Its pretty early for me and I havent ate breakfast yet.

Mercury - June 12, 2020, 7:23 am

I'd rather wake up an hour early versus what typically happens to me every day. I wake up 10 minutes before my alarm goes off like (literal) clockwork. It's agonizing. Have a good day at work.

?ystem - June 12, 2020, 7:25 am

I know the feeling OP. It's almost 9:30am for me and my body randomly decided to wake me up at two in the morning, way ahead and early for everything I have to do today.

It was getting late in the evening here exactly 10:30 pm and it will take me some more minutes before signing off :)

Appreciate that. Have a good day doing whatever it is that you do!

Herbert - June 12, 2020, 7:43 am

It's already evening for me, I'm usually up at 9 AM sharp.

MightyOne - June 12, 2020, 7:53 am

I prefer getting up early then late :) i hate running late. always best to be before :)
Atleast you werent in a rush this morning then ! thats a good thing Goods

Yin Yang - June 12, 2020, 7:56 am

My hrs from work got cut to 32 so we have Friday's off, but are getting the days back later as PTO at the end of the year.

So I'm just chilling, happy it's Friday.

TGIF!

Good morning buddy!

Lol, It is 8.30 Pm here just preparing to eat dinner!

Our timezones have a huge huge difference ahaha :D

Simplex - June 12, 2020, 8:14 am

Waking up early is the worst feeling :(

I usually get up an hour before I'm suppose to leave for work as I have an hour drive into work. Unfortunately today I woke up 2 hours early. I'm the type of guy who really needs his sleep as well.

Our time zones are way off lmao. Goodnight to you sir.

Well I hope you have a goodnight buddy.

Megatron - June 12, 2020, 10:57 am

I know that feeling. Sometimes I wake up right before my alarm clock is supposed to go off. It's a really weird thing.

MarvinMalware - June 12, 2020, 11:48 am

I've always loved waking up early, wake up at about 4:15 am on work days (In at 5am) and get out at noon it makes me feel like I got more out of my day. On days off I still like to wake up before 8am to keep my schedule going and to enjoy my time not working lmao.

I never have been a morning person. I'm always super productive at night.

Honestly I don't sleep much I tend to kinda relax in the afternoons and do my constructive shit in the late nights. Usually I go to sleep at like Midnight/1am and wake on my normal schedule.

Exalted - June 12, 2020, 2:10 pm

I do this all the time. I usually wake up like two hours before my alarm goes off, sometimes just a mere five minutes, though.

Rally the Bulls - June 12, 2020, 2:21 pm

I woke up 30 mins late, but have worked like 20 extra hours for free (salary) the past 3 days. Left at 1am and was back in a 9:30 again to do it again.

it's Friday though, boutta get fucked up tonight

Bacardi Cola Lime - June 12, 2020, 3:56 pm

I had a very busy week and I had to wake up really early in the morning. The thing is that now I still wake up super early, despite sleeping late due to work.

Wespa - June 12, 2020, 4:24 pm

Well, at this moment I just got home from a house party and I'm just chilling and enjoying some good old Odens Cold Dry.
