To be short, I'm looking to go into the niche of game cheats. I'm good with interpersonal relations and marketing, I have little coding knowledge. You handle the software, take a 75% cut as-well as an upfront payment for cheat and bypass. I handle the rest.

If this is you PM me.

This is not a very good deal for a developer, coding takes a lot of time and hard work and you're taking 25% for doing what exactly? There's not much interpersonal relations when selling a cheat and marketing is definitely not worth 25%. I suggest you would pay a developer upfront to create your cheat and then you sell it at 100%.

Any dev that would be capable to code you a cheat will never take this deal.

Good point, I'll rethink my business plan.

Good luck with your project. Always try to get the 100% and try avoiding splitting profits with anybody online at all times.

I've paid developers to do work for me on this forum. And I got scammed not the first, not the 2nd, but the 3rd time I paid the same developer to work on the same project.

Imagine doing a long term business.
