Thread: My pregnant ex has bought drugs for her girl best friend

Sunniebeta - June 18, 2020, 12:35 am

I call her my ex because she broke up with me this past Saturday but has been trying to get back with me ever since. I needed time to think this through and we hope to work out possibly. I'm currently at work till 7am. My pregnant ex decided to go buy drugs from someone for her girl best friend. Am I in the wrong for being upset at her? Contacting a drug dealer, meeting up with him, etc..

Are you in the wrong? I'm just saying, if there is a chance that on your child is born in Cellblock H then something might not be right.

Just am I wrong for being upset?

Man she needs to be getting away from that type of lifestyle if she's pregnant. I would be upset too. She needs to reassess the situation, because no matter what kind of life she had before her kid comes first now. She can't be doing any of that man, I would be upset too.

bevc - June 18, 2020, 12:49 am

Mate, you need to get away from this chick. She seems to make it her mission to make your life difficult. And I thought she was getting an abortion? Did you both decide you wanted a child?

MarvinMalware - June 18, 2020, 12:50 am

Absolutely not. You have the right to know if your unborn child could be in a less than pleasant environment. She should have spoken to you prior to this. Hope things start looking up for you OP.

DeITex - June 18, 2020, 1:17 am

No, that's definitely grounds for you to be upset (depending upon your personal values).

Need to be with someone who's values won't contradict with your own so aggressively.

At the end of the day, it's her life and she may do as she pleases with it. You also are allowed to decide (based on her core values shown by example) if she's a person you want affecting you based on what she makes, as we live in a world where people's ideas of ourselves is increasingly becoming more and more affected by what other people we associate with might say.

Exactly my point bro.

I'm sorry to hear that OP, she sounds pretty crazy to me.

I hope she stops acting out rather sooner than later.

First get your ex girl with a good psychology specialist

Maybe got mentally depressed by you or the current boyfriend of her but take of her if you wish to or even not to accept but take care of her for atleast humanity

How long have she been taking drugs? Are you aware of it even before?

She hasn't been using drugs. Her girl best friend is and she asked my ex if she can grab drugs for her.

That was really dangerous then, why she allowed her friend to use her to be a drug courier or buyer?

I guess she's not a real friend to her...what was the reason of your girlfriend to do that on behalf of her friend?

Wespa - June 18, 2020, 5:12 am

I honestly have no right to say this cause I haven't been in your situation but that lifestyle is not good for her.

Simplex - June 18, 2020, 6:41 am

Nah, you're not wrong for being upset. I would be too. Not only is she putting her life in danger but also being in a toxic environment while pregnant can't be healthy.

V?rt - June 18, 2020, 6:47 am

Absolutely not. If I were in your position, I wouldn't even mess with her. Sounds like some crazy drama that would probably be best for you not to have.

What drugs are we talking about?

I'm surprised I needed to go to the 2nd page to see this question lol

Psychedelic. - June 18, 2020, 7:58 am

Hopefully not hard drugs? Pregnancy and drugs is very bad.

Just weed.

funtela - June 19, 2020, 7:45 am

You're not wrong. You're just looking out for her. Females will do the opposite of whatever you suggest lol

Artisan - June 19, 2020, 8:44 am

The act might not be wrong depending on how you might want to look at this and since she can choose to do whatever she wants, however such transactions might end up in altercations and things can go wrong so its better for pregnant women to not go to drop offs.

Why can't her friend buy it herself?

StayPlural - June 19, 2020, 8:53 am

For sure it's a Grey area as to how you should feel. Technically you have every right to feel however you want. Pregnant women shouldn't be going to drug dealers tho, I'm not trying to sound mean but she sounds like she might be somewhat hard headed as in she kinda likes to do as she pleases.

Best of luck op, try not to stress out too much man.

Angela White - June 19, 2020, 1:40 pm

Define "drugs".

Weed or shrooms or something like that I wouldn't be concerned about at all.

Meth, heroin, etc. (especially while pregnant) then she's a dirtbag.

SIM-74411 - June 19, 2020, 1:49 pm

In my opinion, I don't think you're wrong at all. She is putting herself in risky situations. So if you do love her, and you do care for her. Let her know that she can't be endangering herself or your child.?

Contacting a drug dealer, meeting up with him, etc..

I don't think you should get mad because she didn't use them she just bought them for her friend.
It's hard to be the plug.
