You need to donate bytes and quick love the post only once. If you want, you can donate more bytes and quick love posts again and again... But its not mandatory. Just multiple posts will be enough for multiple entries. ?

Entry for all you guys are confirmed. Participants, whose names are not mentioned here, kindly read the thread again and do the needful.

Yes multiple entries are allowed. ?

It is not mandate to donate bytes and quick love the post again and again, however if you want, you can do so. Just a post will be enough to count your entry.

Good luck every one!
