what's your favorite store-bought ice cream?

There's a lot of good Ben & Jerry ones, but my favorite has to be the Breyers vanilla caramel gelato \(this one\)

Simplex - June 18, 2020, 5:57 pm

Ben and Jerry's Milk and Cookies is my favorite. However, I can only eat that once in a blue moon or I get sick. Halo Top is my favorite "healthy" ice cream and I'll eat that once a week compared to ben and jerry where I'll have it once every other month.

Skateboard - June 18, 2020, 5:58 pm

I like chocolate, vanilla, strawberry, cookie dough, and more : )

DeITex - June 18, 2020, 6:08 pm

I'm personally not a huge fan of ice cream. It's a lot of dairy and sugar for me. I'm a sucker for oatmeal or gingersnap cookies though.

However, when I do buy ice cream I normally go for the Great Value: Cookies & Cream flavor from Walmart.

StayPlural - June 18, 2020, 6:16 pm

That Ben n Jerry's. Any flavor that isn't too crazy. I think the fact that they have good morals behind the company goes even further.

How ever some Haagen Dazs chocolate layer ice cream is fucking mint, all of the flavors.

Tbh any ice cream flavor with chunks of chocolate I'll fucking go with lol

I just don't like paying the same price, for a personal sized ice cream, that tastes close enough to the same thing as other name brands, but is less then twice the bang for my buck. ?

MightyOne - June 19, 2020, 2:39 am

Hagen Daz Salted caramel IS THE FUCKING BOMB!

If not then there's quite a few ben & jerrys flavors i like:

gimme smores, netflix & Chill'd, BOots on the moon, Caramel chocolate cheesecake, chubby hubby , Cold brew caramel latte, coffe toffee bar crunch, cinammon buns, Half baked, Smores, salted caramel almond, strawberry chesecake, Triple caramel CHUNKS, vanilla caramel fudge.

I want ice cream now, geez thanks OP

Wespa - June 19, 2020, 4:40 am

Yeah, I personally don't like to pay the same price or even more for something that tastes a bit worse than normal ice-cream.

?ystem - June 19, 2020, 5:50 am

I'm not too big on gelato, it's just not my thing. Although the one ice cream that popped into my head is Belmont Sea Salt Caramel.

Ben and jerries cherry garcia.

Bacardi Cola Lime - June 19, 2020, 11:41 am

It's called nirvana and it has caramelized pecan nuts in it. It's my favorite by far. Never had Ben and Jerry's though so my pick is pretty biased.

What's in that one? I always see it and never consider it. I usually just go with the safe options I'm familiar with.

I eat keto so I don't eat traditional ice cream brands, but rebel ice cream is hella good for a low carb option. I love the cookies and cream flavor.

Yep, Cherry Garcia is also quite good

13uNkNoWn - June 19, 2020, 10:07 pm

I just got a Ben & Jerry's Cookie dough... I swear they are skimming...

it was basically a vanilla that they accidentally spilled a few chocolate chips and a few chunks of cookie dough in....

Trash. High quality trash. but still trash.

Octavia - June 20, 2020, 3:28 am

Ye, they have a lot of flavors and you can have nuts in them or on the ice cream. It's really good I totally recommend it on a hot day.

Is Ben and Jerry's really that good? Is it cheap in USA? Here in New Zealand it's like twice as much than 'normal' ice cream and about a quarter of the size. :/

It's not that good... It's high quality... and has many popular flavors that other brands don't carry. But here it's the same... 2x the price 1/4 the size.

My actual favorite is from "Thrifty" supermarkets... (rite aid)

They have one called Chocolate Malted Crunch... definitely my favorite.

Full quart for like $2-$3 vs B&J $5-$7 for a pint

They are good but yeah they are expensive for how little they are. Here in the US they are about $4-5
