Thread: New IOS update \(IOS 14\)

OfficialLemon - June 23, 2020, 5:53 pm

A new IOS update has just been released, and i personally love it.

Although I have not updated to it yet, i have watched multiple videos on it, and it looks sick. It has many new features you have never seen in IOS before.

Here is some pictures:

Do you have an iPhone, if so what one?

What do you like / don't like about the new update?

Would love to hear your opinions on this new update. as said, i personally like it due to it being super clean, and brings so many new useful features in IOS that we have never seen done in IOS before.

EDIT: Only beta available right now. But I talked to my friend, and he says it works great.

I have an iPhone 7 but I didn't get the update yet. It's coming out this fall I think. It seems like a nice iOS update though :]

I have an iPhone XS Max and I gotta say widgets look ugly. Giving me windows vista vibes rn.

MarvinMalware - June 23, 2020, 6:47 pm

I don't see it released yet? I just heard about it today however my iPhone 11 still has yet to have an update available. Has it been released or is it a future update? It looks pretty nice to be honest.

I have an iPhone SE 2020, and i guess i'll pass the update gonna wait for a jailbreak from unc0ver first.

Zher0 - June 23, 2020, 6:55 pm

Not released on my phone yet. I do think the widgets look pretty decent though.

Simplex - June 23, 2020, 6:56 pm

Just checked for my phone sadly not yet ready.

Method - June 23, 2020, 6:56 pm

looks like a nice update, gonna be waiting for its release.

Ah, my bad. Should not have written "Released"

Forgot to mention you can only download beta version right now.

Its time for an update homie. I know at AT&T you can add a line and get the iphone 11 for half price.

You won't be seeing it for another few months. The very first beta release came out today.

Yin Yang - June 23, 2020, 7:45 pm

Not really feeling it, but I'll get used to it

I'll let you know what I think once I get my iPhone SE in the mail later this week. :)

MightyOne - June 23, 2020, 11:35 pm

Sorry for being weird maybe but whats different then the old version ? they honestly look like the same versions to me...

Is there even any point of jailbreaking anymore in 2020?

Mostly to hack games but people still create cool things on there

LoremIpsum - June 25, 2020, 1:59 pm

I have the same iPhone as displayed on that image, but I haven't done the update yet.

Still at 13.4.1 but planning on doing this soon. About the images, I do find it look an awfully lot like Samsung.

When looking at their competition and of course, rivalry, I do think that a law suit will come up very soon.

For me only thing worth it is youtube ad blocker and free spotify either than that those tweaks are just to flex not actually useful
