Thread: 16k in Sales at StockX.

pharaohsneaks - June 24, 2020, 12:32 pm

Took my awhile but nearly there :D
I didn't expect it to be so high, since StockX is trash now but i'm happy.

All from selling shoes and clothing for a very tidy profit.

Nice profits :D Selling shoes and clothing pays off!

Literally just heard about this today from a friend. Some shoes were going for like 100k bids wtf lol.
Where do you source your stuff that you sell?

Where do you source your stuff that you sell? I source it all from Nike/Adidas themselves, Smaller stores (Smaller skate stores etc.) And maybe once or twice off someone I know in real life. Most of the massive bids you see on StockX are for really old shoes that are near impossible to have unworn, so very few of them actually complete.

Well hats off to you, i hope that I can get into it at some point it seems like a decent side income.
