what happened with this? thread closed, I did not get what I bought and my MP does not respond. Was it a scam?

EDIT: when i tried to post the instructions to receive the crypter the issue was closed and there was a confusion, now everything is fine with Tom C, i adhered to Discord and the issue was solved.

If the moderator wants, he can close this thread

He should contact us, it is not logical to pay him and have to look for him. I have bought 5 different crypters and the delivery is immediate.
