I approached AV1 offering 75% via BTC for his 2x $80 Amazon Gift Cards. I sent him the $120, then received a private message from user Musik asking if I had sent payment because he was actively in a deal for the same cards. I told him to wait and proceeded to contact the other two individuals he made a contract with. Instead of sending exchanged goods, he tried to get me to send more money outside a contract as he successfully persuaded Musik. AV1 successfully exit scammed for ~$300.

He just took a vacation banned. Probably your money is gone.
Sorry for your loss.

I offer free MM and also paid sticky just so people know.
Not saying you should use me but better use MM next time.

Thanks, hoping he can vacation a little longer... scammed myself, Musik, CryptoBanker, and almost Alanox.

Sorry for your loss. Not getting that back. Should have used a middleman. Better to pay a 2-3% fee than losing out on hundreds
