Notice how nobody gives a shit because he wasn't a white conservative. These leftist loonies are starting to lose it. He killed one and injured another.

First? What makes you believe "nobody gives a shit because he wasn't a white Conservative" ?

What makes you think nobody gives a shit?

What makes you think the reason they don't is because he wasn't a white conservative?

I'm sorry, can you explain what reaction you expect/want people to have?

I mean aside from all the news articles covering it, and the murder charge, and shooting back at him directly.

What more outrage do you want?

Quote:Police said on Sunday that a man had been charged with murder and wanton endangerment over Gerth's death. The suspect, identified by an arrest citation as Steven Nelson Lopez, was wounded in the leg by gunfire from bystanders at the park who were defending themselves, according to police.

Ohh blm, they suck! they are too extreme, and are raising issue where there isn't any issue.

Make up your mind, stop trying to spread hate/divide people

Just use all of your brain cells to try and imagine the outrage if "Steven Lopez" was in fact a confirmed white supremacist. How much would BLM supporters lose their minds?

Thanks to DD for the video that perfectly describes your behaviors: You have no interest in real logical debate.

You only care to discredit and push hate/division between people.

You are trash.

Funny actually because the far left literally does the same things shown in that video.

You box people into labels of "racist", "white privileged", "white supremacist", "alt right", "right wing", "nazi".

Jesus, you fail to see your own hypocrisy and it's hilarious.

Funny how the video literally uses the label "alt right". What a joke. You must be reading rules for radicals.

That's the difference between me and you.

I use labels because they are required and help describe things.
But I don't get stuck on the label, I actually try to understand what the message they are trying to convey.

I use/ignore labels based on the accuracy of the argument.

You try to use them as weapons and then more examples of whataboutism here.
You almost never seem to be able to actually form a logical response to anything.

If you look back at the post history, 99% of the time I respond with very detailed response addressing your every point, you respond with: "nuh uh, your trash" or other labels with no real argument behind it...

So your arguments are trash, misrepresent the facts or just have 0 foundation more than half the time, and your insults/labels are meaningless/empty.

Bleh have fun trashing up the forums.

I'm finally done with your posts. Hope this makes you happy, it'll be more of a conservative echo chamber for you =]

Lmfao "you are trash", what an argument you have there. Pathetic.

You are a radical Marxist whose ideas are routinely picked apart all over this forum. I could care less what you think. You routinely ignore my arguments. I can't think of a single time where you didn't just end up resorting to calling me "racist" or "trash" just as you have done here. That's cool, use your leftist powers of censorship so you can continue self indulging yourself with delusion. I could care less.

Wow he does this often then. He told me I didn't get into Boston university because I'm White and then called me an idiot when I didn't agree with him, saying he could get into BU if he wanted even though he's also white. Either way I think he uses whatever narrative will match his feelings at the time. He also brought up Chicago out of nowhere and when I asked him why, he couldn't tell me. I'm so confused, does he actually have a position on anything? Op, what should blm protesters have done after they were just traumatized?

I told you exactly why I brought up Chicago. I don't support BLM because the founders admitted they are trained Marxists. I don't support political movements that demonize anyone making criticisms on mainstream platforms.

I told you that I have applied and been accepted into many reputable schools, because I have.

Also, I told you I never applied to BU.

I already proved to you that universities are allowed to discriminate against whites. I was probably wrong though in this case and it was probably your low test scores, like you said.

Mental health issues perhaps? A quick Google search indicates: "A speaker at the Kentucky Alliance Against Racist and Political Repression press conference earlier Sunday made several references to Lopez, saying he had been involved in multiple disturbances at the camp and had to be escorted away from Jefferson Square Park before the shooting."

Sadly another peaceful event ruined and life taken. I am glad some of the protestors were armed and could return fire though.

You didn't tell me. I asked. You also didn't prove anything, you just ranted about how universities filled with white people are racist against whites. Why are you so into identity politics, race and blm? if you don't like any of it, don't talk about it lol incel idiots see one person, who clearly is NOT sharing the same ideals as BLM, and blame BLM for him shooting them?

Where is there protests?

Selective media has taken over.

I'm not from the USA, it's difficult to see such a divided country. What happened to "make America great again"?

Hope the system improves. You will always see the extreme left and right, but don't let that ruin the vision!

Be visionary and don't lose track of what you are fighting for!

It pains me to read this discussion, just a reminder that you guys will never change each other's minds.

Try to speak from compassion and interest - the more you try to reason with the other, the more you will become divided.

Sadly I think it's more that the US media is ignoring it because only one person died and they only focus on the big mass shootings now. ?

I'd been expecting someone to shoot at the protests eventually. Just because there were so many mass murders in the USA in 2019.

Lol, you're the one who is delusional. Saying something doesn't make it true.

I've read his entire proposed gun legislation and it is anything but "right wing". Biden, with his extreme case of dementia, will bow to the radical left. He already has. Who knows who is going to be calling the shots behind the scenes if he gets elected, it sure won't be him!

I didn't "just say something" I said look at his political compass position which you can view online. The US doesn't have anyone in any real position of power that's on the left. The Democrats and Republicans are both on the right compared to any other first world country that has.... you know..... health care that people don't have to pay for three times like they do in the USA etc... Countries where you actually get something for the income tax you pay like Denmark, Australia etc...

Biden has made some very good speeches lately but I don't think you have listened to any of them and instead it seems people saying things like that just watch FOX news finding old gaffe clips and claiming he has dementia.

First of all, you act like all of their systems are good. All of those countries all have lower populations as well, with arguably less immigration problems. Sure, some socialistic policies may work in one particular state or country, but it often has devastating effects at the macro level.

Tell me why my Canadian relatives always had to come down to the US for healthcare? If government subsidized healthcare is so good and all.

Back to the original point, Biden is not a "moderate" when he bends the fuckin knee to extremists.

The Pact - July 16, 2020, 1:08 am
