Even as a European, I can't deny that this is some sexy egg!

I won it at a post, got notified by our man Stanley.

You can't put that egg as 'award' for Lottery, nor hatch it, as my green egg was only shown in the Incubator option (or as second perhaps?).

So thrilled right now and wondering who is with me?

Post here if you won the too! ?

Ub3r will have more benefits than the Egg as 'award' itself, but the award will be limited to a certain period of time to be purchasable.

I think you're misleading. I thought you would of been some old guy writing essays, but you're young in your 20s planning trips to Mexico. I think it's just the avatar throwing me off. You decided if you're going to Mexico or not yet?

You can't put that egg as 'award' for Lottery, nor hatch it, as my green egg was only shown in the Incubator option (or as second perhaps?).

So thrilled right now and wondering who is with me?

Guys, you seem to misread the replies that I posted earlier.

Xerotic confirmed that there will be 1 permanent egg (bought award) and the disappearing egg (won).

IF you hatch your won egg, you can purchase the award. If you don't hatch it, you will lose it eventually.

Please check out the threads of Xerotic and find the answer yourself :-)

Check Omniscient threads, he got 1 for the Hackuman Lunge designs and he posted somewhere to be giving away 10k bytes for a new Independence Lunge.

I guess we all have to wait for updates!

But what's the purpose of it just coming and disappearing, if it almost can't be used for anything other than hatching, hmm.

Brilliant answer LOL. Btw when you wanna post the image of an award, you can do this instead of hotlinking the award image; [award = 146], without the spaces.
