Thread: Hackuman Independence Day Event

Xerotic - July 2, 2020, 5:33 pm

Introducing.... Hackúman Independence Day Event!

Today we bring forth a new limited event egg to the game!

This egg has two ways of being obtained...

Via the Buy Awards page (permanent)

Via posting and getting lucky with the egg drop (not permanent)

Over the weekend your will have the opportunity to find an Independence Day egg. Once the weekend is over we have some cool stuff planned for it. But one thing is for sure, you'll want to have a HUM egg before the weekend is up! For those who obtain the egg via posting but want a permanent Independence Day egg, we will offer a grace period after the event in which you can still obtain the permanent version via the Buy Awards page. If you want to guarantee your permanent egg now, snatch up it before it's gone!

Until the next phase of the Independence Day Event your new Independence Day Egg will not expire. It will also not be able to be incubated until the next phase.

If you're interested in being a part of the next phase and also earning 10k Bytes... check this out: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6051249&pid=59953710#pid59953710>

Stay tuned for more and happy hunting.

Yes. Alternatively, the non-permanent egg award will eventually decay from your profile if you don't incubate it. Just like the other eggs.
