I'm new. At 30 years old, feeling rather lost and foolish for not ditching all other studies in my life before finding this site recently.
An Uber account would rock, or l33t if that's unavailable to me. 25 in btc would be nice to see my first crypto ever if the account upgrades aren't possible..

Still at a loss at where to begin other than the random dive in... The tabs are growing so fast ?

If you win, I'll ask you what you rather have. $25 BTC or the L33t upgrade. Ub3r isn't possible, as you aren't a L33t yet.
