Bitcoin

Yeah better save those winnings and buy some important things that you needed most.

Send some on your bank for savings as well.

Just bring a little bit of money when going again on that site :D

nessum - July 7, 2020, 7:07 am

Hopefully you are going to cashout this money, in 90% of cases the people think they can win more money and lose everything step by step. :)

Windows - July 7, 2020, 12:25 pm

That's crazy, what kinda strategy did you use?

By strategy I mean how much did you bet each hand, etc. I might try it and see with $50

Lorem Ipsum - July 9, 2020, 6:50 am

That's some incredible luck right there!

Just make sure you do not fall for the sweet addiction-juice of gambling.
Noticed your big Sportsbook bets, and winning $6k for 'free' (-$50) is amazingly motivating to try it again haha.

Congratulations on the victory! <3
If you need some bytes to play blackjack on HF, I will sell them to you for a special price of $6000 / 75k bytes hahaha Joking my man, you know that :-)

Thank you haha I rarely make $0,08/byte as prize. But for $6k I'm making an exception!

S2K - July 9, 2020, 6:56 am

I like making from the special bets like same pair as they have nice retrun rates. Regular bets are too boring

Lol good idea. I turned $20 into $970 in week playing poker. Was fixing to cash out and played one more hand, lost and decided to play another etc. Lost it all in less than 24 hours. Take the money and run my man.

You are leaving on profit only when you really leave :)

Yep. Sadly that's the hardest decision for some gamblers to make. I won $450 in one poker hand at the casino and said, "You all are going to hate me but I'm leaving on that note". Went and played nickel and dime slots for the rest of the night. It was a pretty good night.
