Thread: What would Do to reach the Love goal and why do you love awards so much

TOM - July 7, 2020, 9:42 pm

Hey Guys

Were you actively using the the Quick Love feature?

what methods would you use to get this goal fast ?
and Why do you like awards this much ?

anyways before omni introduced the award goal , i feel like this feature was not used frequently but i see a increase in it (today)

if you haven't realized already, this new Goal Award was added for Quick Love

Nope, and in honesty, all the spam threads are getting a bit out of control. They should die off in a day or two once the award chasers complete the milestone. For now, just riding the wave.

I must have had decent post to go from 50% to 80%. Then again I've seen zeros today go to 100% just for grading nonstop.

A + - July 7, 2020, 9:57 pm

I had apparently received 39 quickloves. I was handing them out as well, but probably not that many.

Yeah this is what I think too. Even though people are farming QL's now, the 365 day period will still be a good time. The hype of the new award just gave people something to work towards other than the other award goals, so the farming was bound to happen for the first 24-48 hours. Maybe a stat reset might come with new rules etc, who knows.

Yeah, I can see how staff would get annoyed at all the people rushing for the award but overall it's created more activity in multiple sections. I think after the first couple of days of the hype, it'll die down and people will start using the feature the way it was intended to be used.

MightyOne - July 8, 2020, 3:35 am

I saw Eagle95 locking these sort of topics now since they kind of intent to just farm lq QL..

I hope there wont be much spam related to it :) and that people will just share the love when possible.

It's an achievable goal that is simple enough to get with a little bit of work each day. I think that's what so appealing to so many people.

Plus, you send 10, you get 10, so there isn't a real risk or investment into the goal other than time. I think it's a great addition and hopefully I'll join the members who have the award. I'm pretty close already!

I see awards like boy scout sash patches. Not necessary, but if you're the kind of person who likes to have your awards in clear eyesight when you walk into your house/room/office, then I understand them. Kind of something to go after on the side while being a part of the forums, and to some incentive to stick around and stay active.
