Thread: Reddit keeps removing my posts

Danskeren - July 8, 2020, 7:03 am

My posts seem to get deleted after 20 secs everytime I post on reddit - Any solutions to this? It seems like the moderators has done a significant filtering change and I even tried copying one of the girls exact posts, but it still got removed after 20 secs. Is it my ip and cookies? I do it on a private browser in google chrome!

Du skulle kraftedme skamme dig, at bo i et land som Danmark. Og så sidde og lave e-whoring. Føj for helvede. Hvis man sidder i et velfærdssamfund, og får i hovede og røv, og stadig har en trang til at skrive frækt med gamle liderlige mænd, mens man lades som om at man selv er en kvinde. Ja så er det kraftedme ikke pengene som motivere en, dit ækle møgdyr.

You should be ashamed of yourself, to live in a country like Denmark, and then do e-whoring. Fuck me sideways. If you're living in a welfare society like Denmark, where you are paid thousands to do literally nothing, but you still have the urge to be sexting with horny old men, while pretending to be a women. Then money is NOT the motivational factor you disgusting creep.

What subreddit?

Most subreddits require you to verify yourself before (holding a piece of paper) or you need a certain amount of karma.
