Great question, the best packs are the ones with the usual verification pics (may require a bit of editing sometimes), quite a good bunch of vids, and the content of those vids, and the same goes for pics as well. and lastly how they are organized is a huge deal. folders called, clothed, selfies, bath, before bath, after bath, etc you get it they are detailed.

free packs are usually scraped and most of the time not explicit from what I've seen. paid packs are the way to go. or just pay a girl IRL for the number of photos and vids you need ...the very expensive option... in which you need model release papers and you need at least 4 other people to verify the signing of the document as well.

My definition of a HQ pack is a pack that has:

- Multiple non-nude photos/videos (tease)
- Multiple nude photos/videos
- Longer videos (10-30 minutes) for upselling
- Verification pics/videos (holding a paper, peace sign, finger touching a nose, etc)
