This is really a tough one to find that works for YOU. Not having any experience and buying guides from here could be risky. I suggest staying the fugg away from ewhoring. But if you want to make legit money, an online business could be the way to go. What skills do you have? Are you social media savvy?

You can go through my profile, I've posted number of free threads to give you a glimpse on online monetizing. It's personal preference on what you'd find most attractive for yourself. Like user above said, e-whoring is absolutely disgusting.

This its a huge mistake that many people do .They search all day on forums searching for a easy method that will make them money with no work and they dont do nothing and no money also .Lets tell you a secret : making money its not easy and you need to work hard ,have patience ,never give up etc .I would advise you to start something like cpa ,affiliate marketing dropshiply and start working hard create content reviews ,videos etc .In the final the work it will make you the money ,of course learning its also important ,but if you spend 1 year searching for the best method to make money online then quit making money online
