How much you paying bro? And is it hard or 50/50?? like what would you rate it from 1 to 10 in difficulty?

I love writing so if you already have the source to write off to it, it can be a winner

Something around $15-$20 a page? I think that's fair. I don't mind paying first if you have a history of doing homework. Difficulty is 4/10. I will not be finding the sources.
