What a great milestone!

My favorite memory was when he first went live years ago and it was fun. Saw his girl too.

?roye - July 16, 2020, 11:44 am

I joined not too long ago but my fav memory would be becoming friends with [mention=2774521] ?

Limitado - July 16, 2020, 11:50 am

Im absolutely loving HF rn!

Vibe - July 16, 2020, 11:52 am

It's insane to be a part of this tbh, I never thought when I signed up ~10 years ago I'd spend so much time online and dedicated to this forum. It's really one of the biggest and best learning tools I've had in my life

Mando - July 16, 2020, 11:53 am

That's a huge ass number, it's amazing to think just how many users HF has, but that's nothing compared to the number of posts! :)

flavoral - July 16, 2020, 11:59 am

Congrats HF. I'm posting here cuz Xerotic has blackmailed me to post and is threatening if i post saying that he blackmailed me.

Glided - July 16, 2020, 11:59 am

That's insane, great job to the community.

Lol was he on Tinychat? I challenged him to a drinking competition there once but it never worked out. Lot of cool memories there. Running the 666 faction on Hackercraft was fun too.

Yep! He was totally wasted on tinychat with like 15-20 of us.

Dredd - July 16, 2020, 12:37 pm

Making 1000 lounge posts in a 24 hour period for the lounge head award was pretty memorable, especially when Xerotic fugged me up by resetting my award counter at like 990 as a joke.

Blockonome - July 16, 2020, 12:42 pm

How much I would have wished to be the 60,000,000 post! Congratulations and I am glad I am here to witness it happening!

I was watching the statistics page to see when it would hit 60,000,000. Apparently it hit like 40 minutes in terms of Post-ID, but because posts were deleted or moderated, it created a slight difference in the stats page.

My favorite memory will always be the great people I've met during my time here <3

Free Kurdistan - July 16, 2020, 4:42 pm

Glad we made it. Can't think of just one memory but being active again and enjoying HF is my best chronical memory, if that makes sense.

Totally agreed. When I came back to the forums, I had a bunch of old vets say hi to me in DM's!
Was so nice to see familiar faces!

Artisan - July 16, 2020, 9:54 pm

A really amazing achievement. Hope the engagement and activity gets an uptrend from now on.

Same... People were getting like free bitcoins (full BTC's) so easily. But then again, they were spending them also. But luckily, it's still a good investment right now, plus the forum basically runs on BTC now.

Stig - July 17, 2020, 6:37 am

The litty summer lounge days

?Dødggygeez - July 17, 2020, 11:59 am

My favourite memory was when a HF member decided to do a huge dose of acid on livestream and everyone saw his goods and it was really small because of the drugs, like really small and too many people ripped the piss out of him while others defended him.

Notable mentions: Joining my first HF group.

Learning about investing.

Learning about cryptocurrency.

Making money $$$

I wish I could get drunk over webcam with Omni :(

I do see it as investment, but I am not sure if I would classify it as a good one.

Itachi - July 17, 2020, 7:58 pm

I just joined HF I don't really have any memories lol

Yanix - July 17, 2020, 11:17 pm

The very first day the Hackuman game have been introduce I feel really excited about it and until now I am still enjoying the fun and thrill playing the Hackuman battle.

Everyday the game is still part of my routine :D

Omni has done great with the forums, and the staff have always been awesome! True changes had to be made to keep the forum alive and attract the newer gen.

The staff is one of the best if not the best.

TOM - July 18, 2020, 1:56 pm

Thats a big milestone for HF , omni has done a great job to keep this site up and running for over decade

Deities - July 19, 2020, 2:54 pm

I remember the social engineering section being huge, and then BlackShades basically ruling the marketplace. As well as Nokiamon and his infinite cash supply. All good times!
