Thank you haha lost 7k bytes again. 1k bytes per spin is too much for me I think.

Will keep my 70k now for sale. Don't want to lose too much just for some fun ?

I won the Jackpot almost today. That's what triggered me into gambling more haha.

Don't be fooled by any screenshots though, I did a lot of 50 - 500 bytes spins too and with some great winnings aside with some great losses.

I basically won and lost 300k~ today haha. Each time I won, I lost. Each time I lost, I won again. Decided to screenshot the last 'big win' and stopped gambling ?

After a lot of wins and losses I decided to leave it at 70k lol. Rather sell it for cash that I can invest, than hoping for my guts to be right.

Although I don't like the member, I think Gambler is the real king.
What he put in Slots is something I can't even dream about, or have nightmares about haha.

That's great to hear. Just don't get your mind lost in the future without enjoying the now.

From reading this thread it seems to me that some people may have a gambling problem.

Never gamble with money you can't afford to lose. That's having a gambling problem.
