What makes your script so special compared to the cheaper scripts out there that do the same thing? Just curious. Not trying to bash.

With this you've more nice features like:

System is already configured to take payments via cryptocurrency

When package price is changed on supplier late the price will get automatically updated

Automatic paypal detect chargebacks

Referral system integrated

Reward system

Api system

Also if a customer need an extra feature or anything else since I'm the developer I'll build it much more faster than others that need to study how the panel works under the hood
