Do the private proxies get removed as an option for other people once purchased?

also, where do i add the coupon code? doesn't give me an option on the site.]

update: The proxies work great. Purchased some private ones and they do function as expected. will be purchasing more from you as needed. Thanks!

As more of a "blanket" statement to everyone, in the last week and a half I have had some stuff popup in my life that required my immediate and full attention for a short amount of time. I am back now & if you have any questions feel free to PM me or get in contact with me by other means. The site has remained operational & I will continue to ensure that it does.

I need dedicated IP from specific city of Michigan.

Can you provide? If so, price please.
