You can put them into lotteries if you upgrade to Uber. 25$ yearly. The perks are great. ?

Why don't you try playing the game bro?

It is fun and pretty exciting, try it out :D

Artisan - July 22, 2020, 3:25 pm

Maybe coz hes low on bytes. Incubating and raising a hackuman costs some bytes plus people with powerful hackumen can kill yours pretty quickly if youre unprotected/not in a crew.

I guess most of us started the game not on a crew but somehow managed to stay long on the battle :D

I need some eggs and I am joining your lottery :D

MightyOne - July 23, 2020, 2:46 am

I have bought a few tickets in your lotteries :) thanks you so much for making them!

Hopefully ill win some of the eggs , preferably the sapphire one ^^

Lorem Ipsum - July 23, 2020, 3:07 am

I think the Lotteries are taking too long before they end, but it's a great way to collect some more Bytes.

I will buy 5 tickets for the Sapphire egg and wishing for the best. Thanks for making this thread, awareness is the key!

for OP only (Click to View)

you have a typo on the Sapphire egg. It's "Sapphire" not "Sapphure".

Damn. Didnt even notice the typo. typos bug me too. What would you suggest as the ideal duration for such lotteries? This was my first time and I noticed everyone is using variable times so couldnt be sure about it.

I always have these times when it comes to eggs;

Emerald > 1 day

Ruby > 1-2 day(s)

Sapphire > 3-5 days

There is no wrong or right, but I only participate on the shorter lotteries. I think its a matter of taste.

Artisan - July 24, 2020, 4:02 pm

Thanks for the advice. The emerald one ended so I started a new one. ?

Yeah all them are active. I wasnt much knowledgeable about duration so I set long ones for the ruby and sapphire eggs. I have been updating the emerald egg lottery every time it ends and I get a new egg. Will do the same with the other eggs.
