Just wanted to "showoff" my steam profile, I made the artwork graphic using 2 online picture/gif editors because i'm lazy to learn GFX.

Went with the overused "retro 80s" theme. I don't care because I love retro stuff. And yeah I know that my profile is 80s themed, but my username is 70s. Anyways here's my profile and a screenshot, lemme know what you think:

Feel free to share your own profiles if you put some work into them.

Respect for the high-ish level. I wanna get to level 70 and that's it. Mostly because the ring around it is pink.

Just traded tons of keys for card sets back in the CS GOLounge days where I got plenty keys that I didn't use.

That's what I did to begin my leveling up, I said I only wanted level 10 but as you probably know it doesn't just simply stop at steam level 10.

This is my profile. <https://steamcommunity.com/id/cdrem1>

Haven't used Steam for a good while so the appearance is old. I remember putting effort to make my profile so high quality though xD

Hey, still looks 1000x better than a default level 1 profile. I love the aesthetic of anime themes i'm just not a big anime watcher
