I'm looking to get a tattoo on my bicep but I need some ideas of what to get, not anything dark like a skull etc something intriguing

Vitani - July 26, 2020, 10:58 am

I would go for something that has some form of personal meaning to you. Favorite movie/TV show, moment in life, something like that.

Dopamine - July 26, 2020, 11:00 am

Not original ikr but I'd like to suggest you a diamond with a crown or something in this way :P one of my future tattoos for sure

HOMODIN - July 26, 2020, 11:01 am

Yeah, go for something that has a special meaning for you, or, something like an "inside thing"...or then just make it to a portion of a brick wall (rather large bricks that fade out to the edge after a few layers).

hynk - July 26, 2020, 11:01 am

Well, I know it's not so unique, but I did a lion on my forearm few days ago. Other than that, I still think other animal tattoos are pretty badass.

flavoral - July 26, 2020, 11:03 am

You can get my name "flavoral" on there

SIM-3587630 - July 26, 2020, 11:04 am

Some good old koi fishes kind

Nadisty - July 26, 2020, 11:11 am

Have you already got anything in mind?

Zexi - July 26, 2020, 11:11 am

Don't wanna fuck up your will or demotivate you but..

If you don't know what to do you are better off not doing it. Never do it, just to do it.

I was about to tattoo a dollar sign on the back of my hand and i gave up on it as i thought it was gonna be a criminal mark my whole life. Now when i think about it i find it cringey.

Ouroboros is a cool thing to tattoo though.

crown - July 26, 2020, 11:47 am

I wouldn't get a tattoo just to get one, I'd wait until you have something special that you'd want tattooed on your body for the rest of your life.

I like the lion idea!

This is great advice and something I didn't think about. Tattoo's are pretty permanent so it's probably wise to not get one unless you are 100% sure.

That's why I would never tattoo a name ever, unless it's my kid or maybe the person I'm married to. Personally wouldn't get that kind of tattoo eitherway tho.

V?rt - July 26, 2020, 12:18 pm

I've been wanting to get something weird tattoo'd on my leg. Honestly maybe looking at doing a crypto themed tattoo. Mainly because it won't be seen much. Oh plan on getting a sleeve soon as well. Just go for something that is personal to you, or has helped you grow.

Limitado - July 26, 2020, 1:38 pm

Try to get something unique and not something super common like lions roses etc

SIM-2848947 - July 26, 2020, 2:13 pm

That but larger and across your forehead

EDIT: Actually nah don't use that, I don't want you to steal my idea. Might get it for myself

Injun Joe - July 26, 2020, 11:56 pm

Not a bad choice for bicep

jecoylecroy - July 27, 2020, 12:02 am

A colored butterfly is nice. Or maybe try something new like the HUM you get after you hatch the eggs->it think no one have tried it before. :)

Npooja - July 27, 2020, 12:23 am

Try to get something unique and what you like

There's tons of those designs. I think you should get one with your favorite animal and maybe something you can relate to idk. Mix and match, create your own design.

Bossk - July 27, 2020, 10:17 am

I don't think you should actively look for something to tattoo. Instead, you should wait until you find something or someone that you love so much that you want to tattoo it.

Pink Floyd - July 27, 2020, 10:26 am

I would better generate a concept first and explain it to a artist to come up with ideas.

Mank - July 28, 2020, 4:19 am

Well I like the bear one because the bear represents strength and courage as well as the naturistic background because I've always been around nature growing up
