My brother found this song on Spotify a few weeks ago... I don't know how, but it doesn't seem to have blown up yet... I feel this is gonna be a 2020 summer banger.

Had to share it with you guys... what do you think?

This YouTube video had about 250k views when I posted it. 140million now, although the song didn't blow up as much as I thought it would, at least here in the UK.

Still a tune though, what do you guys think?

Rod Wave does some pretty good music, I discovered him a while ago and this song is so good I still listen to it at times.

EDIT: there is another version of this Same song, different video. It's a tune though. Here's another I'm loving by Rod Wave atm:

He's got another recently released too, "Street Runner". Another tune!
