Thread: Unemployed

Vilanoxx - August 3, 2020, 1:57 pm

Just joined the unemployment group due to corona anyone else in this situation, pretty shit. Company went bust basically so lost job.

Yin Yang - August 3, 2020, 1:59 pm

Damn and that's after the $600 extra got cut off too

MavenGradle - August 3, 2020, 2:00 pm

Unfortunate. Best of luck to you, and don't sit around too long. Lots of people looking for jobs at the moment and not a whole lot of jobs available. The sooner you can find something new the better.

TCP - August 3, 2020, 2:01 pm

Many people will lose their jobs next months just because of wrong government policies

Dopamine - August 3, 2020, 2:58 pm

Congrats bro I'm on unemployed group since a lot but it will change soon.

Prepper - August 3, 2020, 2:59 pm

Well better file for that unemployment. Too bad the $600 benefits expired because the republicans and democrats cant get there shit together.

Nima304 - August 3, 2020, 3:00 pm

Been on unemployment since mid-May. I took a 3-month contract in February and thought I could just get another job before it was done, obviously that didn't work out. I'm gonna miss the extra $600.00 per week.

EdoRaijin - August 3, 2020, 3:54 pm

I'd take this time while you hunt for jobs to develop applicable skills in the work environment. Perhaps take up a hobby? Such as programming, hiking, weight lifting / working out, even stocks can give you a general idea of some things.

If you have any certifications such as chemical, or power tools such as forklift, scissor lift, jacks, etc. Those are also applicable and you should place them on your resume, if you have one.

Best of luck to you my man.

Malthemar - August 3, 2020, 3:57 pm

I lost my job due to Coronavirus, however this showed me that I absolutely detest my career anyway and encouraged me to seek change.

jecoylecocy - August 3, 2020, 4:41 pm

Same here bro....life is pretty hard.

Today we've back to much more hard lock down because of the continues rising of Covid cases. Medical front liners where really pissed now and had to ask the government to make a hard lock down again.

Economy is dying and so the people is having a hard time dealing with it.

i need help with important tasks that have to do with hacking, scamming etc. I hack into whatever the task is for the day and you run my tools to sort, correlate and map the data and you then use that data for either, jacking financial accounts from our data and siphon the money. As long as you have some decent knowledge computers and hacking, you'll do fine. Just let me know. Also NO i dont need any money or any type of payment from you. You will just be a paid "employee"
