Thread: I have Been Scammed And Lost My Sports Betting Group Because Of 3 Hackforums Members

Vichenzo - August 5, 2020, 3:38 am

Long story short, because I had a community alert against me here, one of the users in my group - @SimpCity here in Hackforums, made up a story that I'm a multi acccounter and @AlphaMale that was having admin rights at that time as I let him do some edits kicked me out the server. Right now they rebranded the server and are running it together with the user @Banana.

I will avoid dealing with them at any cost, they stole my hard work and will use my success in order to attract customers now :(

Here is the proof, that @SimpCity wanted to take my server but when he couldn't he did it on the dirty way.

My point is. Don't buy anything from these users, they have 0 clue about sports betting

Fortunate - August 5, 2020, 3:44 am

EDIT: OP has admitted on having 200+ accounts on the forum and being a multi-account scammer:

(Aug 5, 2020 03:55 AM)Vichenzo Wrote: CITE I counted it wrong, they are 350 + (if we include the B-rating boosters I'm using, not just main accounts)

Multiplying your money in HF is the easiest thing to do. You just buy few RDPS, buy a couple of accounts, start giving b-rating on eachother. For example 10 RDPS and 10 Upgraded accounts will cost you only $250 total investment, and you can easily make few k out of that in no time

It's really easy, you should try it

Its very pity that ppl chose to scam instead of trying to be legit and build up a nice reputation on a forum, in the long term you get richer by building up something good instead of doing an exit scam.

This guy is probably a poor gambling addicted gypsy and I knew it from the very first day that he would scam someone, he was on HF for less than a month but it felt like he knew everything, bought into a group and shit..

Your full chat log with mexican, with you showing his discord ID so we can confirm it is him, and not a fake account you made (which you tried to do cause you think I am really that dumb). Your full chat log with mexican, with you showing his discord ID so we can confirm it is him, and not a fake account you made (which you tried to do cause you think I am really that dumb). I know you aren't gonna do it, cause you scammed him off your main discord cause you are, well simply put it, a retard.

Stop trying to worm your way out of it by saying "HEs ON cCHROME!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!" Dude, if it was so easy to prove your innocence you would have already.

I never posted a fake discord wtf.... i showed a video i have NO CHAT with him i literally told you you can get on chrome and change the parameter you never even tried it... I could message myself and make it seem like i messaged you. I showed proof everything you wanted when i learned how to upload but i refuse to steady show and you want more and more just like with simp and now it comes out i was right when obv he tried to slander me just like you this thread iterally has nothing to do with me you really harassed me i could report you if i honestly cared enough too. What does this do for you make you feel good? I said from day 1 he's on chrome im not gonna repeat myself you can do the same thing on chrome with inspect element. I proved it again and again.I told you i would screenshare when i made that post about simp lol you just want to bash at this point.

I thought OP was sketchy, guess I was right about him.

You have not shown the chat log with Mexican on discord publicly yet like I asked. Also i'm 99% sure that copying someones discord id is a server side request, therefore I very much doubt he could have inspect elemented it, but feel free to prove me wrong here to clean your name. Like I have been telling you to do.

All you have to do is try it on chrome that why I said it'd be like that till you refresh it

There are lots of people on telegram after him. He doesn't have a job all he does is scamming people on the internet.

Copying someone's discord ID is almost certainly a server side request, not sure how you are gonna inspect element that, but if it is possible, and what Mexican did, please prove it by doing it yourself and posting the results here.

You can keep talking the talk, and that is literally it. If you don't want people to think you are a scammer why don't you spend 20 minutes to clear your name?

Lavish Living - August 5, 2020, 6:23 am

I have come to the realization that anyone with a colored username and a joindate within the past 4 months, is in fact a multi.

Thank you.

Its amazing how you can keep what you say so straight throughout the allegation. I dont get why he keeps dodging what youve been telling him. He says your bugging him by following him everywhere in the forum and posting the same thing but if it bugs him soo much then why isnt he showing that log to everyone?

The answer to that question shouldnt be a mystery to anyone whove read youre exchanges with him. Hope people like him dont scam any other sheep around here.

Thing is that even if he didn't join gamblers, or any group existing on hf, he would've still done this, as he admitted to use fake vouches and other bullshit.

Gamblers is nonexclusive. We have no join date requirement, no 'legitimacy' requirement, no requirements at all. Just a group of degenerate gamblers. Obviously we do not support scamming however, this is why the only rule is that you have no unresolved deal disputes.

Good rule of thumb for HF members: never add trust to someone just because they have a colored username. And always use an mm.

(Aug 5, 2020 09:55 AM)Red Sox Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) The fact you can buy-in to most of these groups makes it easy for retards like bubbleboy to continue to do this over and over.

Make requirements for accounts to be aged before allowing purchasing in a group. New users don't check so they fall for it and then the excuse of "we don't condone or back the actions of these individuals they just purchased into my group", some responsibility is on you too because you're allowing these retards to buy-in.

Make groups great again 2k21 ??

I have thought about it, but nah. If someone is naive enough to be scammed PURELY because of a username color... that's on them. They need to take the hit to learn I suppose. The purpose of my group is not to "make groups great again" - it's strictly to get a bunch of like minded gamblers together and host tournies and events and talk about gambling 24/7. I have no reason to exclude someone who joins HF today.

I offer free MMinig for any deal involving a Gambler member :)
