Do you use VPN while browsing Hack forums

Deany - August 6, 2020, 11:55 pm

Nope. No reason to use one.

Me neither i forgot to mention

johndifronzo - August 10, 2020, 2:39 pm

Nah I never use one, they block a bunch of N-o-r-d servers anyways it's pointless finding one.

Although I have the capability to with 4g and residential land lines, there is no need to use them here.

Imao

Blazin - August 23, 2020, 11:52 pm

No. awhile back you could not use one most of them were blocked but I think now some of them you can use. Either way, I don't use them on here.

I can't, hackforums block mine..!

flatline - August 25, 2020, 5:05 pm

There are a lot of people saying that they don't use a VPN here in this thread and saying that there is no need to use one.

Just a reminder that sometimes people are arrested from HF and your posts might end up as evidence one day. Some of them for stuff that the user didn't think was illegal (selling/buying certain software). If you do anything greyhat/blackhat on here, use a VPN. Even just using the marketplace or contracts I would use a VPN to have a veil of safety.

Pereceh - September 2, 2020, 9:25 am

I'm not using a VPN at the moment.

sure

theghostofgreen - September 5, 2020, 2:19 pm

Nope, I go in raw. I don't wear any gloves for the handshake at all Depends. Sometimes I have [censored] on, so I don't bother turning it off.

Vibe - September 5, 2020, 6:09 pm

No I don't I purposely avoid hackforums when I have it enabled, I like that hackforums well do the human check when I do accidentally open hackforums tab and not actually just access the site.

Freak_OG - September 5, 2020, 7:57 pm

I do sometimes, depends on whether my vpn is blocked or not

Blockonome - September 6, 2020, 2:06 pm

I would like to know if anyone here could help me with a VPN related question? Because I would maybe use a VPN, if it could serve the right purpose for me.

No worries man, I think some sections of the forum are highly active and then there are some sections where it is hard to get help.

vRWN - September 7, 2020, 3:46 am

I don't think there is any reason to have a VPN on while browsing HF.
