Thread: What would you do during the purge?

24 hours, no laws/crime is legal... what do you do to make the most of your time? How do you spend the other 264 days due to this?

Find the nearest island on the map, stock up on supplies and stuff so I can grow my own food and head to that Island with my family and friends. Would definitely take lots of weapons too so we can bury invaders or hostile people approaching our island.

It's just 24 hours, not the apocalypse. What do you need to grow food for?

Im a long term thinker. My concern was what if this shit gets repeated, I wouldnt want to live in constant fear. So moving to the island with my love ones seemed like the best idea. ?

Dopamine - August 7, 2020, 5:01 pm

I would handle a lot of shits

B?????araka - August 7, 2020, 5:43 pm

Try to keep my family safe from purgers. i wouldn't be out there looting and killing.

Nima304 - August 7, 2020, 6:42 pm

I'd figure out some way to make some quick cash during the purge. I'm not really worried about looters and purgers personally.

What a moronic holiday, just go to Canada, or live in Canada. Everyone would naturalize in other countries, and it would be the perfect holiday to get nuked by Russia.

Prepper - August 7, 2020, 7:12 pm

I am a prepper, I would prepare and defend.

WRX - August 7, 2020, 7:13 pm

Probably find an ATM or something to steal

Yanix - August 7, 2020, 7:48 pm

I would hide my ass but if needed will defend myself from any harm.

JuiceWrld999 - August 7, 2020, 7:50 pm

Be on the highest building with some snipers with me and the boys

Injun Joe - August 7, 2020, 8:03 pm

I will find a cave, stack up all necessities.

randomvodkalover - August 8, 2020, 12:30 am

Go as far as possible from the center of action, hide my ass with laptop and family and browse HF

DextrousDude - August 8, 2020, 12:35 am

Rob a few banks then sit out on the middle of the Pacific Ocean on a boat with the money until the purge ends.

(Aug 8, 2020 03:59 AM)Doubt Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Go take my family and hide out somewhere until it's over. No need to take any risks for some cash when people are going to be out there acting like morons, reckon the death toll in America would eclipse any other country so long as nuclear weapons didn't come into it. Would make a bunker over time in my garden which would be hidden in the ground and have a fake bunker layout inside of it with the real bunker hidden through a passageway in the wall, so if anyone somehow made it down into the bunker they might think it's abandoned.

Well if we're obeying by purge's rules, weapons bigger than gun or rifle are not allowed.

I would most likely just hide and wait until it's over. I live in village anyway where everyone knows everyone so I doubt we would have any action going around here :)

MightyOne - August 8, 2020, 4:44 am

Fuck a bunch of hot models, maybe rob a bank or something to get a lot of money and then hide in my house till the purge is done so no one will kill me lol

MightyOne - August 8, 2020, 8:52 am

(Aug 8, 2020 08:34 AM)Doubt Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) how are you going to locate a bunch of hot models during a nationwide purge tho, doubt the clubs or runways will be open. gotta go looking

True, but i guess if the purge is real, people would probably know about it, like when and where, rules etc.. like the movie.

So.. ill try to use it as an advantage idk lol clearly haven't thought this through

?roye - August 8, 2020, 10:01 am

I'd just rob banks and my favorite banks. I don't think I'd be killing anyone since I'm against harm and violence. (Robbing stores doesn't count as violence)

bandors - August 9, 2020, 6:57 am

I would move to a country where there is not a purge.

I'll stay at home killing any invaders. Pretty simple plane.

Split the cash that would be the best thing to do for themselves haha

Yanix - August 9, 2020, 7:03 am

(Aug 9, 2020 07:01 AM)Doubt Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) agreed, but some people would rather just kill you straight up and take it for themselves if there were no repercussions

If that's the case just give him everything or fight back if he can managed, that's the best thing to do :D

Fortunate - August 9, 2020, 7:36 am

Probably just what everyone else would do. Get a safehouse with supplies, guns etc and be there for the 24 hours. Not gonna risk my life.

Yanix - August 9, 2020, 8:03 am

(Aug 9, 2020 07:34 AM)Doubt Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Might have a chance if it's just him, I'd assume most people going to rob would have a whole squad with them though. I'd just fugg right off if I saw a bunch of goons loitering around the bank I want to rob, will have to use any money I get to pay for my hospital bills lol.

Yeah and it was so chaos for sure and more people will be hitting each other...better be safe and out of streets that time.

I wonder why you said that you get to pay for your hospital bills?

Oh I see so better be safe always bro :D

SIM-1232764 - August 9, 2020, 9:53 am

Honestly have no idea. I would be fugged.

Scooby - August 9, 2020, 3:04 pm

Ok so I've seen a few repeated responses on here I want to address. First, the Purge lasts for 12 continuous hours, not 24. Second, robbing banks is a bad idea. By the time of the 2nd movie, it is established that the banks move their money on Purge night and even during the bank robbery of season 2 there are the Jackals to deal with. Third, staying home is only a solid plan if you can afford to properly secure it or live in secure enough community.

Personally, I'm stocking up on assault and sniper rifles, taking my family to one of the many church bell towers around this city, popping some Adderall and waiting out the night.

aceWithPace - August 10, 2020, 7:46 am

I'll just protect my family . i don't have anyone in mind to kill ( right now ) HA!
