Thread: PAYPAL IS BEING A GOOF \(anyone else just hate paypal in general\)

Freak_OG - August 7, 2020, 11:25 pm

Why the fuck cant I send any fucking money with my paypal?!?!?! I just sent like 300$, to my friend, he refunded me, and now I cant send ANY MONEY TO ANYONE

Anyone else just seriously pissed at paypal for their stupid "Link a card" bullshit
I've never been so pissed off at a website in my life man...

SIM-2327840 - August 7, 2020, 11:40 pm

Lmao just link a card then and you wont have this problem.

Why don't you try calling them out directly to clear things out bro

Whoa there's no customers service?

They should have assigned their customer support 24/7

What I hate for paypal right now is the low conversion rate but fees where always high.

Yakless - August 8, 2020, 1:27 am

When you link cards, your bank, then ID & SSN verify and they still perma limit you and then delete your account and tell you you need to subpoena them if you want to know why they deleted your account

Dopamine - August 8, 2020, 1:58 am

I hate Paypal just for the easy chargeback refunds.
And conversation rate are so wtf

SIM-3587630 - August 8, 2020, 3:03 am

Paypal customer service was pretty hard to reach pre-covid, now it's even worse. If you manage to phone them or live chat with an employee, that's the only hope to get a decent support.

PayPal might be safe to use for online shopping, but everything else about it just sucks

Lyrarei - August 8, 2020, 4:20 am

I'd have sad teenage years without paypal, so I'm neutral. literally the only way to receive money back then that doesn't require a debit card or having to be 18.

PayPal sucks bro, start using cashapp, btc and other wallets..

Halo - August 8, 2020, 5:44 am

Paypal doesn't suck if your account is clean.

Pawnhub - August 8, 2020, 6:24 am

Get business verified on paypal. I am. I haven't run into issues for years now before yeah they limited me and locked my account a few times.

Injun Joe - August 8, 2020, 6:30 am

I have not used paypal for more than 5 years.

SIM-4772474 - August 8, 2020, 6:33 am

I see why a lot of people avoid it

SIM-1232764 - August 8, 2020, 6:39 am

I hate paypal. I actually just wiped out my balance last night and put it all into BTC.

bluud - August 8, 2020, 6:50 am

Paypal has been and always will be shit imo. I use cashapp, they give you a free card with no fees aside from $2 ATM withdrawal and you can buy bitcoin within the app at the lowest rates around.

SIM-3467872 - August 8, 2020, 7:06 am

I stopped using paypal years back. running a business on paypal is very hard chargebacks, limits too many problems.

bluud - August 8, 2020, 7:25 am

This. You can get chargebacked then limited due to it, submit completely valid docs and lose all money in the account for 180 days.

BiggL - August 8, 2020, 7:28 am

I hate paypal with a passion - here is a recent issue I had with them.. previous to her reply I typed a entire ESSAY explaining the issue I had with a payment.

Some guy refunded for something already sold to him and he had used it - it was a fail of a refund on his side as he said it was unauthorized so I knew it would clear but I had waited 11 days and these usually clear after 24 hours to 48 hours..

I replied with that cause I was getting pissed cause she gives the shortest replies ever and non helpful replies.

ALWAYS have to wait AGES on these supports.

So this was her reply after me explaining a entire situation to her after the case had been open for 11 days - a simple case that is usually closed in a day or just more than 24 hours. ?

(Aug 8, 2020 07:25 AM)bluud Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) This. You can get chargebacked then limited due to it, submit completely valid docs and lose all money in the account for 180 days.

I deal with chargebacks daily almost on paypal.. I win most of the cases but it is bs and I am at the tipping point of stopping.. sick of their shit ??

V?rt - August 8, 2020, 7:37 am

Yeah, I'm not a big fan of PayPal either. They say they do everything for the protection of the buyer and seller, but it's truly for their own protection so that they don't lose even the slightest bit of money. They don't care about the customers at all.

DJBoutit - August 16, 2020, 6:38 pm

I hate it I had 4 accounts limited 3 never got them back and the other took 8 to 10 months to get it back all over dumb crap. I hardly ever use Paypal only use it 2 to 3 times a month each transaction is only $10 to $20 each. I wish more online business would switch to Stripe or Dwolla these 2 are a lot more secure.

PAXFun - August 16, 2020, 6:42 pm

I am not sure how you can get limited if you verify your account properly.

If someone hacks your account and make 1 or few purchases with your account and you make a claim over this

One more way is buy something off Ebay it is fake or broken maybe you did not receive the item and you make a claim against the purchase sometimes this will get you limited

Than idk whats going on, but thats weird, i am not in love with PayPal because of conversation rates, chargebacks, fees. Not because they are closing my account.

Parker - August 16, 2020, 8:57 pm

This happened to me when I tried to send $1 and my friend refunded it

I haven't used PayPal in years. Fuck that place, dude.

Trev - August 20, 2020, 1:05 pm

Man, I've been dealing with paypals BS for years, they are so strict about everything. Any little weird activity and they want to act like you're doing something illegal. It's so ANNOYING! ?

Maybe just you man. Perhaps they might this something suspicion is going on. Ive never had any issues what so ever.

m33k0 - August 20, 2020, 4:47 pm

Paypal is pretty awesome until they 1.) ask for your passport, utility bill & a picture of your nuts to verify your account or 2.) side with the buyer on a questionable chargeback. Been doing my best to avoid it with cashapp, venmo, literally anything but.

What do you mean lmao. In the OP you were complaining about them making you link a card.

Just 100% verify it and you'll never have an issue.

ghostboy - February 12, 2021, 11:48 pm

Yeah I hate paypal I was banned in 2018 for selling items against TOS. They gave me no second chance and block my calls or emails whenever I contact them. It sucks because a lot of platforms like ebay require paypal jecoylecroy - February 13, 2021, 1:51 am

I just tried PayPal and I'm not liking it. Funds were in hold for 21 days.

SIM-3205632 - February 13, 2021, 1:54 am

I'm from Philippines, the 2% is not a tax. It is like their charges but they charge in several transactions as well.

Thats what happens when there is no competition, they can charge and do what they want.

lTheSlayer - February 15, 2021, 8:54 am

I hate PayPal too, high fees, my country doesn't support fnf payment and you'll be fine if you verify everything.I'd prefer Cashapp.
