Thread: App icon? Have you ever see this?

SIM-4387328 - August 9, 2020, 2:24 pm

I am creating a social community app for general discussion and simple small reward tasks. I need icon for that so i posted a contest on freelancer.com

Someone recomended me this icon, Its unique icon or have you see this icon on any other brand?

I modified it littlebit so it look more professional

It's like discord and reddit got merged into one.

I think its pretty cool looking (as I said in your previous thread). Can you make a version in only black and white with maybe a metallic gradient?

Logo looks clean, but the modified 1/2 color is the same as discord

OxaByte - August 9, 2020, 2:33 pm

seems like sort of chatbot which is copying discord colors and type.

Definitely reminds me of a reddit and discord logo hybrid haha. It looks cool nonetheless.

This logo reminds me of the Reddit logo a LOT... especially the rounded edges one. Not particularly unique IMO!

Modified 1 looks best to me but without the mouth.

I like the scheme and looks on #1, I personally haven't seen anything like it before. Defo unique good job!

I like the first modified than the second.
