Thread: Website cloner script python

Mascot - August 13, 2020, 8:47 am

Create a script in Python which visits this forum's homepage and creates a valid HTML/CSS/JS clone. This means your script should download ALL CSS/JS files used in the homepage and then store them locally in a folder. The location of all CSS/JS imports should be changed from our URL, to a URL which serves the files stored locally. Save these all in one folder named Hacking and once complete export the 'backup' to a Hacking.zip file. It should all be completed in Python (including zipping) and should not be environment specific (meaning you should try not to run commands which will only work on your device, but instead correctly import Python dependencies which allow for zipping, etc).

Can someone provide a nice python script that can make this functions? Or at least can clone site (css/html/js)

Few questions:

- 1) Why?
- 2) Is this a request for someone to do this for free?

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
