Revy. You probably know me since I've been playing since 2015.

Damn i think i will try it out again.

I played the official one and i dont know exactly why i moved to a private server, but there were so many good players, i learned to play the game on pservers.

Back in the days i played it on my laptop without a mouse. my mousepad got so f*cked, both mouse buttons were blank and the glue from mousepad gave up some day and mid game my mousepad felt down into my laptop. i will give fgunz a try
