Thread: My poop clogged neighbour pipes

reGame - August 16, 2020, 10:51 am

I have to investigate whether my dad sold me out or not, but neighbour came to our doors and said exactly that our poop clogged her pipes.

Not gonna lie i have digestive problems and I always consider such situation can happen.

now i know that im not just pointlessly paranoid and that am 100% right.

Thoughts? this is kinda embarassing

LoremIpsum - August 16, 2020, 10:54 am

Thoughts? Seek medical help or at least go see a doctor.

Non medical help? Change your diet, drastically.

Both not an option for you, Google your symptoms and seek another solution.

Just tell them you dont know how that happend if they ask?

a323109 - August 16, 2020, 10:56 am

That sounds weird. I cannot see a way you pipe can block someone's else pipe. Dont pipes go to a larger tube?

Dopamine - August 16, 2020, 10:58 am

Bro you should go seek your doctor asap in that case, maybe its the larger pipe that got blocked? ?

but honestly i dont know how this installment looks like

Bruh wtf

Literally bursted out laughing reading this

Poop should pass through the pipes without blocking it. Probably tissue paper or something else that gets flushed is the culprit here. Ive heard similar situations involving sanitary napkins.

For your health issue, you need more fiber in your diet and also consult a gastroenterologist.

I know how it works here. It cannot happen in my house.
Logically the larger pipe cannot be blocked by something already went through a smaller pipe.

If he Google his symptoms, then he probably has cancer, lol.
But you're right. He proobably should seek medical help, haha.

As simple as I can put it either way, if you shht or use too much paper. You can always resolve your issue by flushing once in between yr shht lol.

Best regards

BiggL - August 16, 2020, 11:57 pm

call your friendly plumber no need to got crazy we all get blocked pipes
