In the first one I was getting the impression that hes just lip syncing but the second one (rap battle) blew my mind. This dude is good!

I came back to this thread a second time just to say this guy is absolutely crazy. I've been listening to some of his other shit since I came across this post, and it doesn't disappoint.

In the beginning I was afraid this thread was just to mock some handicapped guy, but it definitely isn't!
