Since you are having a hard time with sales, I recommend giving a vouch copy. You have no B Rating or reputation it might be a little hard for you and especially since this method is only 10 dollars, if this is legitimate as you advertised this method could easily go for for a hundo in my opinion. Anyways; good luck with sales and everything. Will be monitoring to see if this is actually what it is.

He posted this thread less than half an hour ago.

Besides that, valid points. And I think its very much a fraudulent method so this probably isnt even allowed.
