Ban the sale of moneymaking methods

Nobody will show you how to make money like himself because instead of generating more from their method they share the market or niche with someone else.

It's all a scam. Stop it

Also it'd stop the dirty spam of them in the premium sellers place.

SIM-2327840 - August 20, 2020, 1:38 am

Not going to happen.

Ebooks keep market alive aka money for stickies, stickers, etc. Aka site can stay alive.

Cyam - August 20, 2020, 4:40 am

What a stupid thread... Do you think this hasn't been said thousand times before you already? Omni already said he's never going to do it and if you feel they're scam you're not obliged to buy them so what's the problem?

Thanks for the laugh ??

Ebook's have been the topic of choice in the past with users being unhappy with returns etc, However some ebooks actually work.

Although it was made clear that the Ebook section is here to stay by Omni ???

Well no, it's not a stupid thread it's a discussion but glad to see you posting here out of all people!

I see you have 5 scam reports all saying the same thing. Clearly you're not providing or lying about results in the thread. Gladly you're here to explain to us how comes you lie to people oh these forums to make money and how does it make you feel to be such a creative fraud on HF?

Would love to see a reply :)

No one is obliged to buy an e-Book and all deals are at your own risk. You're fucking retarded for even starting this thread (in 2 sections).

And I find it so fucking funny y'all always use my disputes as argument, no matter what the thread is about.

RIP Juice WRLD - August 20, 2020, 5:24 am

I don't necessarily think they should be banned, but I definitely think they should take up less space on the forum. Maybe making stickies pricey, or something like that.

So that means the scammer is free to find targets on these forums, according to your theory. And I'm not retarded for starting this thread you have no legit arguments for that. You're retarded if you think I'll fall for that that easily.

It's a thread about ebook scamming you idiot what'd you expect?

Yeah, just keep it inside Ebook Bazar and I'd be happy, cause then I can filter it out.

Cooligan - August 20, 2020, 6:20 am

I'm almost positive that if HF had a memes section that this thread would be moved there.

It's a marketplace.. E-books are sold in marketplaces along with many other things.. And the fact that people need to explain this to you is what surprises me the most.

Also, I thought this was too ironically funny:

Mark Ronson - August 20, 2020, 6:48 am

It's right what you say, none is going to sell you a working method, and forum would be of much higher quality without those ebooks sales but banning them aint gonna happen for many reasons

Just letting everyone know that this is the user Friyie, Yung Gravy, or some of the other names he has been using to scam other members.

He is a known scammer and a manipulator, who blatantly scams and then vac bans and then come back with another username, just a heads up.

There will be always ebooks , its ur choice to buy them or not.

James Burnham - August 22, 2020, 12:57 pm

Then they will focus on selling highly-promising, non-functioning software like Facebook bots that will get you unlimited traffic from fb groups, discord bots that allow you to spam unlimited numbers of accounts, [BRAND NAME REMOVED] bots that allow you to spam as much as you want etc. You get the point, a liar is a liar.

purloiner - August 25, 2020, 10:20 pm

These moneymaking methods are actually teaching you how to make other moneymaking methods to aquire money; therefore I think they arent scams as you think.

Bosika - August 30, 2020, 10:40 am

I am also against banning ebook sellers and methods. There are plenty which do work and thanks to those I make my money online since a few years and can't say it didn't help me in a way. Saying all are scams and not working is a very bold and retarded statement. What do you say about courses that sell online for 1k, 2k od evem 5k?! Those are scams also to you? Well they are to me more than these cheap ebooks because you shell out 5k and don't make any money. This post made me angry. However I do understand your point and it needs to get filtered out a bit more to get rid of those who really promise something unrealistic. For this reason we have this and other forims where trusted members or even admins, moderators or other very trusted members vouch for these methods and ebooks. So why not? We should trust them and each and every ebook mith methods should be vouched like that. Then we will get rid of scammers and BS.

Verdande - August 30, 2020, 10:45 am

I can see from a point of my first ebook ever purchased, I wish I knew then what I know now. I have yet to buy any ebook that makes money, or even if they do, is able to return my initial investment.

You literally signed up today, have 1 post and 2 matching IP's.. and you talk about ebooks being part of HF?

I doubt you'll be here for a long time.

@OP;

If you don't like ebooks, don't buy them. Simple as that.

Like those "weight-loss" commercials, it's your choice to buy it, or ignore it. Nobody is trying to convince you to buy anything you do not want to buy in the first place. Those who do buy it, are responsible for making money after reading it, if it is a false 'method' they can make a community alert about the 'scam'. Simple as that.

and you really think that a newbie who buy and say in public "method is false be careful" will really matter? The guys who sell these books have giant accounts and massive support, many bratings (fake or not i don't care). Don't hide from the truth, it's redicilous. You know and we know that this shit happens. We just can't avoid it.

A newbie have literally no idea what is the marketplace of HF, he just sees guys with 700 bratings and tons of guys who say "order id : ", (80% of these accounts are newbies might be multi but I don't really care). So obviously he's gonna buy that ebook.

You don't get the point I was trying to make.

If you ban ebooks for the reason OP stated, you should ban commercials at TV, Tell-sell, home-shopping commercials, etc.

Still don't understand what I'm trying to say?

- > Axe body spray deodorant won't get you sexy females in halve-naked outfits to your bedroom
- > Cheese-sticks won't make your kid smile on a rainy day while everything else 'didn't work'
- > Cars will not drive you through the mountains with a happy wife next to you while on your way to a holiday stay
- > Skittles will not make you taste the rainbow
- > Weight-loss shakes will not make you lose 50 lbs if you don't move, even exercise and keep eating unhealthy aside
- > etc.,

It's up to you, if you buy it, not about banning all ebooks for 'not working' if some of them do work.

A guy who sells a product with a title 800$/day 100% guarantee for 20$ should be instant banned from this forum.

I can't really understand why this is coming from a member with a gambling script in his signature

I'm selling a gambling method and it is very profitable. I wrote it in my thread, IT'S GAMBLING and there's ALWAYS a chance to lose. I'm selling to those who don't want to gamble manually and they want to play with a strategy.

People should gamble only what they can afford to lose and gamble for fun.

I never said GUARANTEE profits 800$ per day or any other BS. You buy a gambling strategy, it is what it is.

Method - August 31, 2020, 5:09 am

Same can be said by all ebook sellers. Your gambling script is in no way better than the ebook sellers.

(Aug 31, 2020 05:09 AM)Rise Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Same can be said by all ebook sellers. Your gambling script is in no way better than the ebook sellers.

These guys advertise "you can quit your job and do this to make 500$ per day with these methods". That has completely 1000% nothing to do with Trading bots/Investments/Gambling Methods/Sports Gambling.

These ebooks have no risk 90%, as you don't have to invest but you have work to do (to get 1$ per day or if you have high iq to get good money).

And the methods that I mentioned are risky and you choose them only if you afford to lose what you put in.

Have you ever seen a thread "guarantee profits here is a gambling strategy-investment"? If yes then you can call it as scam like you can call these ebooks.

Xamarin - August 31, 2020, 5:27 am

Look probably I'll get down-voted ... but everybody that is on HF for more than a couple of months know that 99% of e-books are a pile of shit being sold on beautiful graphic designs and shiny thread labels. As I have said in the past ... no one is going to give you a method that supposedly generates you $800+ and sell it for $30, which is what most e-book sellers do.

So, should e-books get banned ? I can't tell you. But with my definition of ethics, they should, since they are promising something you ain't gonna get.

Will e-books get banned ? No, never. E-book sellers are usually people that generate a lot of money (for themselves) and traffic (for the site) by selling those methods, and those people usually re-invest part of those money to group buy-ins, group ownerships etc. To cut long story short, they are a big part of why this forum is still alive.

Oh, and if someone wants to really get a good laugh about the situation, take a look at this vid (if you haven't already that is):

Gambling strategy ??? not better than ebook's shit, you are selling a way to lose money using your strategy instead of just playing other games.

Gambling strategies are ridiculous, they don't work because the house will always win and this is a mathematical fact.

You can sell all the strategies you want, but in the long run the player will be ALWAYS in loss.

Yea, he is selling shit but he wants us to say that scripts he is selling are better than ebooks.

No friend, they are not better, they are equals even worse. While an ebook could be written to teach something good, your scripts are just useless, and even if someone of your customers win this not means nothing, sometimes in gambling you can win.

I assure 100% in the long run you will be in loss, and more you play more you lose this as I said is not my opinion, is a mathematical fact.
