Hmm what else

Marketplace - August 20, 2020, 5:47 am

Then we'd all be riding volkswagens and eating bratwurst.

Nima304 - August 20, 2020, 5:48 am

I think science and technology would have progressed a lot further. The Nazis didn't believe in morals or ethics when it came to progress, and they spent tons of resources into a large variety of scientific pursuits.

Exalted - August 20, 2020, 5:49 am

The German language would've taken over, we would've never gotten the technology we have today, but a lot of progression in different branches. Oh, and there would be a lot fewer minorities.

Roberto Scorpis Malfoy - August 20, 2020, 5:52 am

You would only see blonde peopole with blue yes around you.

Vibe - August 20, 2020, 5:56 am

Hitler would of taken over and slowly destroyed the his empire towards the end I imagine he'd have the Germany people eating smoked sausage made of Jewish people, handicaps, and other none "pure blood" until China decided theyd need new farm land for the ever expanding empire and cleaned house Of the Germans and convert all other nato countries still around to communism

Rekk Dan - August 20, 2020, 7:53 am

It would probably no longer be needed to spend as much on military and weapons as the world now does.
