Thread: 18k in one month eWhoring

Hugh Hefner - August 23, 2020, 11:44 pm

Hey guys,

EDIT: I have received a lot of messages and requests since posting this. I will be writing a FREE short guide for you soon and have added an FAQ to the end of this post. I have received comments that I made this thread to advertise an eBook but this is not the case at all. If you want me to prove my earnings at any time shoot me a DM and I will show you live my days earnings without any hesitation. An eBook is simply the only way I know how to provide the best value to everyone who is asking for help and I do not have the time to coach or teach everyone who needs my help on a one to one basis. Thank you.

So I'll preface this by saying I've had my account here since some of you were literally 3-4 years old. I return to HF usually when I want to make a bit of $ and figured I would return recently and see how everyone is these days and what was happening.

Turns out eWhoring is still around and it's come a long way.

We were eWhoring 10 years ago, but it was different then. The packs for sale were atrocious, and usually sold as a piece of software with a UI that you could have your girl perform actions with over a stuttery webcam. Fun.

In my first week eWhoring this time round, I made 4k. I delete my cashapps regularly but someone told me to keep them for proof. I still haven't as I really don't care much but I will urge anyone who is struggling to make a bit of spare money to give it a go.

I'll attach my recent earnings anyway. I did just under 3k the last 2 days.

Feel free to ask me any questions, I'll do my best to answer. Please leave me some rep, I'm getting used to the new system and I'm low.

Also, I can only show just under $12k of earnings due to deleting my previous wallet as I realized there was good money in this and tightened everything up.

Let me know if you have any questions. I won't give everything away obviously but I'm happy to give some pointers.

FAQ:

- Are you doing meetups scams? No. I do not advocate scamming people.
- Do you work with your own girl? I am looking for one, for now I use a pack that I sourced myself and I keep it very private to protect her privacy.

- Where do you get your traffic? [BRAND NAME REMOVED], though you can use places like Reddit or Twitter with great success too.

- Will you mentor/teach me? I will happily point you in the right direction though I take no responsibility for how you choose to operate. I advocate that you do this as ethically as possible and earn your money to move on to something else. That is just my personal feeling around this and I cannot tell you to do anything. I will be releasing a guide soon on how I earn this kind of revenue, and I believe that will answer a lot of peoples questions. Before anyone says this thread is just to sell an eBook, I will NOT be charging my eBook. I will give it away for free to those I feel are responsible enough to handle the information.

The only thing I am truly leveraging is value.

If you can provide enough value vs the price that someone pays for that said value, you will have a greater success in sales and marketing.

People should be very careful with meetup scams. They are profitable but you do not need to do them to earn good money.

That's an outgoing payment bud.

But the $300 payments were definitely due to the buyers perceiving enough value from the premium.

Another $800+ tonight.

I always deliver what people pay for. There are just a few things that this takes.

1. Great valuable content.
2. High quality traffic source in numbers.
3. A bit of luck.
4. Patience, patience, patience.
5. Determination.

This is a numbers game. Over time you will start to collect those 'sugar daddies'. The more you can provide and the longer you can keep people on, the more revenue for yourself.

It literally says in my post that I won't be selling the eBook and that it will be free. I've had over 20 private messages asking for help and I'll give it away for free to people I think are responsible enough. Please read things before you insult people dude, it's basic manners. I'm just trying to help others.

As I said to James. I'm trying to help people by compiling all my FAQ's into an eBook for those I feel are responsible enough to have the knowledge and not abuse it. I am trying to help those who truly need it and will not be charging for it. Please be more respectful mate, I'm not charging for anything and I've helped every single person on this thread or those who have pm'd me. I'm just trying to do that in the best way whilst managing my own time. It's a lot of effort to help everyone on a 1 to 1 basis. A free eBook solves that.

Thanks dude. Actually it's really saved me more than I can explain. I lost 12 staff and a medium sized agency over Covid with losing all of our retainers at the worst time for us, so I've managed to pay off 16k of my personal loan and I have a little bit left over right now. Still working every day at this but it's certainly not easy and it has it's real tough moments. I put in the hours to make this work and I only have another 10k left to pay off until I can earn to invest in my next venture. When shit hits the fan, Hackforums has always helped me get back on my feet, for over 10 years.

Haha, actually Mel is an outgoing payment not incoming :) I should have noted that. I'm on my chromebook right now but I'll try to remember to post the income from Joshua, as he has now paid me $2k alone. How are you able to confirm a [BRAND NAME REMOVED] account without a phone number ?

It keeps asking me for a phone number, even if I register with Google/Facebook account.

I've tried using online phone verification websites, it doesn't work, those numbers are overused now.

Do you have to buy a prepaid card with a new number to confirm this ? Or what's the solution ?

Phone numbers are required for signing up on [BRAND NAME REMOVED] regardless of e-mail provider.

Using public phone verification sites won't work, it's all paid. TextVerified has never been an issue with me, as they offer [BRAND NAME REMOVED] specific numbers, I also heard SMSDiscount was good, even though I can only vouch for TV.

How do you create country based [BRAND NAME REMOVED] acc? can you teach me that?

Probably with use of a VPN or a find someone you know who lives that area.

You just need to spoof your location. Really easy :)

(Sep 1, 2020 01:50 AM)Xen Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Probably with use of a VPN or a find someone you know who lives that area.

VPN is only needed to give [BRAND NAME REMOVED] an IP in the USA.

You, my friend, have made me very very hopeful. I will get to this first thing in the morning. At what amount do you think a new Cash App account is required? To keep being safe?

Born2Help - September 1, 2020, 10:27 pm

Any recommended app to spoof location?

I tried few and used SMSPVA numbers to create accounts, all gets banned :/ That's why, I'm stuck in this process. haha D;

I think that's more an issue on your end. Never had any issues with SMSPVA myself. Hell, even my own [BRAND NAME REMOVED] account is made with SMSPVA, even with a number from Laos. Never had any issues with them or [BRAND NAME REMOVED] using their service

Guide should be ready in another week. I am currently travelling back to my home country and very busy. I will go through the thread upon completion and send it to those who asked.

For content, I would need more information from you regarding making it? We are just using content already created.

people do not understand how insanely profitable this can still be - i'd argue it is far more profitable than 2-3 years ago with the rise of easy payment processors and more dating websites!

Monero-chan - September 11, 2020, 9:08 am

Just remember that Bella Thorne made $2 mil on OnlyFans and not even posting lewd photos and causing the site to cap the max amount charged on photos or something like that and causing payments to be delayed for several months.

Massive W to her.

Hey all, just an update. Have taken the last 2 weeks off and moved country amongst having some heart issues. I have responded to as many as possible but it's pushed back the guide. I will be fine. Ultrasound tomorrow and have a 48 hour heart monitor on right now. I think it was all just stress from this year and running a business. If you have asked for the eBook I will be sure to message you with a link in the next 2 weeks :)

It's scary to see how many pathetic people there are on this forum. It's also sad that ewhoring is even allowed. You guys just pretend to be women. Just be a fucking woman and go fuck these disgusting men, because mentally this is probably the most unhealthiest thing you can do.

Stop scamming people, you're creating incels that this world doesn't need.
Including yourselves.

Parents create incels. We profit from them. These guys get exactly what they pay for. After doing this for a day and seeing how awfully women are treated by men online, you'd change your tune.

So you use one's photos, who I bet you didn't get permission from, and profit off her body, without her getting any of the money.

You're just as bad as those incels. Thats why you are one.

I do find it takes consistency to get an average. I did 1200 tonight, however another night I can honestly get 200 because so many variables go wrong and you end up frustrated. However over time your average earnings go up as you understand more and can build a healthy funnel of traffic. Plus, you start to work faster and smarter.

Dude that was insane. I think she hit 1 mil in 24 hours. Onlyfans is in a bit of trouble too as they have never paid tax, so they owe 4 years worth. They need that kind of revenue and publicity more than ever.

That's a lot of moolah bud, hook me up if you have free eBook. I really want to be on this kind of business not just because it's high paying but the opportunity that it can provide to my self and my family. I'm on this country that you need to work really really hard to have a decent amount of money to support your family. lets just say some people are open minded.

Congrats to your achievement. For me personally, I don't like the idea of doing e-Whoring. I think it is an immoral thing to do. If you earn that much money from e-Whoring, I suggest to re-invest your money in some whitehat ways to earn money. You can't just live a life of e-Whoring all the time.

I have been ewhoring for 3 years and I don't think I made that much money in a year but it got me through college and I wasn't hungry so that's cool :D (glad that education here is cheap) In all this time doing it I never knew about [BRAND NAME REMOVED] and got my traffic trough the forums, and the only thing that got me going is the same one you said, i never scam people, they always come back the cause of the value :D

I tried [BRAND NAME REMOVED] a few times in the last couple of days but I get very little adds, I would appreciate a few tips regarding the traffic if possible :D

This is my last year whoring, I hope to collect enough money to finally start my own business :D
