Thread: Hakuman game

siddy357 - August 24, 2020, 6:45 pm

I started playing the Hakuman game again but was dejected to see only d-daus after hatching my eggs.

Is it advice able to stack up eggs for it or just kill it and try my luck in hatching other eggs so as to get a better Hakuman ?

jecoylecroy - August 24, 2020, 6:55 pm is D daus a weak hum than others? If it is weak let me kill it :)

Just letting you know. Sir

I don't really understand the question but my advice is stack your HUMS until their stronger enough to engage in fights, until then keep them invisible.

nah :'(, it's really hard to find an egg. And it was a full stack red egg. But I know your hum can't take it alone but fortunate help you.

Thank you brother but my full stack red egg hum was killed by fortunate and goods.
It's very unfortunate and not good.

no. Its killed 30 hrs ago. last sunday, I have problem with my internet connection in home so I leave my hum not using invi potion. Then I log in yesterday morning and found out one of my hum is missing and I watch my hackuman activity and found out who attacked first and who killed it. By the way its a level 17 or 18 full stack.

ButtermilkJesus - August 24, 2020, 7:51 pm

Losing HUMs is the fun of the game, I spent a ton of bytes on a gold HUM and it died like the day after I got it because I fucked up the invis

It depends on which egg you tried to hatch it from
