Thread: Thinking of doing acting course

Mikeeeyy69 - August 25, 2020, 9:55 am

I think I've found what I wanna do with my life which is acting

The only thing is that I have really really really bad nerves my heart beats to the point where I feel like I need to throw up

I honestly think that's the job I wanna do. What do you guys think?

Vibe - August 25, 2020, 9:57 am

If it's really whag you want to do you should make a YouTube and practice acting and post the videos so you can get feed back on what you need to work on and also helping you ease into the camera life

The Amazing Sinner - August 25, 2020, 9:58 am

You should pursuit your dreams, if you want to be an actor go for it!

If it makes you wanna throw up, then it isnt for you.

That's pretty stupid, just because I'm a nervous person that means I shouldn't do it?

You know what I'm honestly gonna just go right in, start off with the beginners course

SIM-3587630 - August 25, 2020, 10:05 am

Start from somewhere, if that's what you really want to do. You can fix the anxiety with time and mostly help.

Just because you "think" and you have a good feeling about something that doesn't mean that's the right thing for you especially when "heart beats to the point where I feel like I need to throw up". You have a huge problem that has to be fixed before you consider to take acting classes.

Isn't that why there's a beginners class? Yeah it beats quickly and sometimes seems like I need to throw up but why should that stop me? I don't know man gtfo my thread your doing my head in

You created thread on HF and openly asked for opinions. Looks like you have more than one problem to work on.

SIM-2908357 - August 25, 2020, 10:45 am

Most people are nervous at the start, even some of the best comedians and actors. It's something that you overcome with time and experience.

Yeah I do have problems and I have a lot of mental problems but like I said being nervous isn't gonna stop me from doing it. It's something that could possibly change my life and set me and my family up in the future

Could possibly help me with the loss of a close friend

Exactly man and it's something I wanna overcome so bad! I'm tired of being nervous with any single thing like it's actually gone worse. I'll get nervous if my mum yells at me and that's kinda weird

Sorry to hear that, but I never said you won't make it. I'll stop now, good luck :)

As long as you can overcome your nerves (which I'm sure you could with time) then I would say 100% go for it dude, there's absolutely nothing stopping you from chasing your dreams.

Acting has actually been one of my "dreams" as well. I've been in many situations in my personal life where I suppose "acting" was needed, and I've noticed I'm really good at taking on another persona when needed, and it's enjoyable as well if not even fun too. So acting has always really been on my list of possibilities.

Free Kurdistan - August 25, 2020, 11:20 am

Nothing wrong with trying bro, give it a shot.

Your bad nerves will be gone if you stay calm and focus, and avoid to think negative in things.

You should do anything possible to chase your dream! You should somehow expose yourself in public in order to overcome that feeling of yours. If that goes away, then you can put all your energy into your goal.

How would I overcome it in public though :(

That's a tough one especially when you say your nerves interfere with that.

I could never public speak (similar to acting)
